With such limits on how you cavort.
Will you take me to task

Two inches ain't much,
But some women like them that thick.

Why you're such a lover of ferkin

Just so long as the man really tries

Some people now think I just brag
About my long dong that I drag
Or use when Ms. Dole

You run up the flag, I'll salute.
Since my eyesight is not too acute,

With hope it will end speculation,

While digging, in June, a new well,
I tripped on my dick and I fell
Inside the deep hole
And, Oh!, bless my soul,
The landing, of course, hurt like hell.

50717 PENES - LONG - ZSERIES Travis Brasell

But being a quick-witted bard,
I stroked my dick, making it hard.

You would NEVER find someone to screw.

(Enigma, I hope you don't mind
The changes below that you find.
I don't mean to scoff
But your meter was off,
So I changed it but left it unsigned!)

51078 PENES - SMALL - SHAMED

While drifting along the Three Gorges,
Where the Yangtse to Sanxia forges,
She complained with a groan
While eyeing my bone,
"But you promised me one that enlarges!"

51079 PENES - SMALL - SHAMED Hugh Clary

Now you're up in your hungering pride,
When no one is here, glorified.
Last night you were needed;
I could have succeeded,
But that's when you shriveled and died.

51080 PENES - SMALL - SHAMED Limericks Naughty & Gay

These cold frosty mornings in England are fresh and they're putting a zing
In my step when I go
Off to work, but you know
That they do tend to shrivel my thing.

51081 PENES - SMALL - ZSERIES Peter Wilkins

Just wait until your tea break,
And then in your hand you can take
Your thing that is shriveled,
To dunk it a little.
You'll see just how fast it will wake!

51082 PENES - SMALL - ZSERIES Ardens

"I know you are older and grey,
But I haven't had sex for a day.
I've worked up a sweat
And my panties are wet.
Will you screw me without a delay?"

51083 PENES - SMALL - ZSERIES Peter W

"I'm sorry, can't do it," I said.
My dick's a disaster in bed.
It's a wee little thing,
Like a piece of old string.
And it's moribund, dormant, and dead.

51084 PENES - SMALL - ZSERIES Peter W

"Of course you'll be able to cope;
Come here and I'll give you a grope.
I'm sure that your thing,
Which you liken to string,
Will grow longer and thicker than rope.

51085 PENES - SMALL - ZSERIES Peter W

With embarrassment turning me red,
She pulled down my trousers and said,
"I see what you mean,
But at least it looks clean.
I'll use it for flossing instead."

51086 PENES - SMALL - ZSERIES Peter W

Damn you for revealing my size,
Which has caused my ego's demise.
But flossing? That's good!
I think that I should
Use that the next time she makes eyes.

51087 PENES - SMALL - ZSERIES S C Saint

Flossing is good for the gums;
The flossee feels good when she hums.
Be glad your not cursed
With my eight inch wurst --
She screams but it's not when she comes.

51088 PENES - SMALL - ZSERIES H WHELCHEL

In Brazil all this stress about life
Is creating marital strife.
The size of their willy,
So small that it's silly,
Means they cannot pleasure their wife!

51089 PENES - SMALL - ZSERIES

In that case I'll cash in my Keogh;
I'll fly with my willy to Rio
And hope it suffices.
But I've other devices
Which I'll bring as a back-up in Rio.

51090 PENES - SMALL - ZSERIES Tutta Gioia

He's after a Latinate trio,
(Caught the bug off of Karen and Me-o)

51091 PENES - SMALL - ZSERIES Lucy

Said the husband, with smiling urbanity,
"I possess penile superhumanity."
Said his wife, "But the score
Of his inches is four.
The rest of it's just his insanity."

51092 PENES - SMALL - ZSERIES Isaac Asimov

Hubby's fury then reached incandescence.
And he said, "My respect for you lessens,
Because four is the least."
"Not so, you vile beast;
That's its length in a state of tumescence."

51093 PENES - SMALL - ZSERIES Isaac Asimov

"Four inches where you are concerned,
You old bag," said her man really burned.
"All the girls," she said, "gave it
(In a signed affidavit)
As four! and the court stands adjourned.

51094 PENES - SMALL - ZSERIES Isaac Asimov

A pensive old chap was dear Bob;
A bit of a reclusive slob.
It all first began
When, as a young man,
His girlfriend laughed at his nob.

51095 PENES - SMALL - ZSERIES

"It's crooked and wrinkled and small,
And hasn't any hair at all.
It looks embarassin'
That tiny hairless 'un --
You've prac'tly no wanker at all!"

51096 PENES - SMALL - ZSERIES

I wish I could brag on my schlong;
To do so would just be all wrong.
The girls say my log
Is small like my dog --
A dachshund that's just a foot long.

51097 PENES - SMALL - ZSERIES

But size is not key, it's the fun;
Like a trophy's admired, not the gun.
Though the length of the weenie
Should not be so teenie,
When it's hot, it should fit in the bun.

51098 PENES - SMALL - ZSERIES

Now I am really impressed,
But it has caused me to be very stressed.
The size of my prick
(No bigger than a stick.)
Is not something I'm proud to possess.

51099 PENES - SMALL - ZSERIES Pepe

But no worry, my lady is here;
For tightness, I still use her ear.
Strange, you may say,
Such a style for a lay,
Yet it works, for complaints she can't hear.

Just under the chestnut tree stands
A gorgeous man who has large hands.
He's got big huge, feet,
That I think's so neat --
I hear that the feet match the glands!

Beneath that old chestnut she stands...
The smithy with feminine hands.
She's a big beefy lass
With one hell of an ass,
And magnificent mammary glands.

51102 PENES - SMALL - ZSERIES Peter Wilkins

Which reminds me of Anna the nymph,
Who oft squirmed at the thought of Joe's lymph
Nodes and totem-like pole,
While she fingered her hole
'Til she found that young Joe was a wymph.

51103 PENES - SMALL - ZSERIES Peter Wilkins

For Joseph was not very tall
And had hardly a lymph node at all
At the base of his thing,
Which was limp as old string,
And minutely, nay, vanishing small.

There once was a girl named Crystal,
Who dated a cowboy from Bristol --
One day, just for fun,
She reached for his gun,
And found he had only a pistol.

51105 PENES - SMALL - ZSERIES Kaylin

But then, as she felt it expand,
She thought it became really grand.
He started to smirk
Till she gave it a jerk,
And the damned thing went off in her hand!

51106 PENES - SMALL - ZSERIES Kaylin

Poor Crystal had only one goal --
In the hay she wanted to roll.
But she became surly,
'Cause he shot too early,
That's why she favors gun control.

On his dick, he called Clyde;
His pickle was not at all dill.

51108 PENES - SMALL - ZSERIES Enema Bandit

She liked to ride it all night,
And she never got in a fright.
He asked for some knob,
Sort of like a blow job;
She said "Spit or swallow, I might."

51109 PENES - SMALL - ZSERIES Enema Bandit

And then at the end of their show,
They'd clean up their organs, you know.
He said, "Let's try tomorrow night;
It will be out of sight."
She said "Not, if your penis don't grow."

51110 PENES - SMALL - ZSERIES Enema Bandit

To a girl who was laughing, "Ha Ha",
I'm sure she made people guffaw!
She said thimble's the size

But that's the size cups in her bra.

51111 PENES - SMALLER John

51112 PENES - SMALLER Linda Longprong

The cad leaped from behind the drape,
And caught Leslie with mouth agape.
And then the foul swine
Bound her up with twine,
And sealed her mouth with silvery tape.

There was a girl all dressed in leathers;
Her wrists and ankles bound in tethers.
Her hands they were bagged;
Her mouth is was gagged;
Her tormentors approached her with feathers.

51432 PERVERTS - BONDAGE Curt

The girl she struggled intensely;
The bondage she enjoyed immensely.
A feather was applied
As she lay on her side,
To which she giggled so tensely.

51433 PERVERTS - BONDAGE Curt

In the bonds she could gain her no slack.
Knowledge of escape she did lack.
The ropes they grew tighter!
With a flick of a lighter,
She felt the drip on her back.

51434 PERVERTS - BONDAGE Curt

Five fingers started to probe.
A hot tongue caressed at her lobe.
Some thing at her snatch;
The warmth of a match!
Sharp teeth nibbled too, at her globe.

51435 PERVERTS - BONDAGE Curt

She squirmed harder and whimpered in glee,
Her torments nearing agony.
The fingers drove deep,
Deep into her keep.
She moaned louder in ecstasy!

51436 PERVERTS - BONDAGE Curt

Her tormentors paused in delight
To savor so pleasant a sight.
They passed 'round a fag,
Then tightened the gag --
Saying "Happy Holidays to all and good night!"

51437 PERVERTS - BONDAGE Curt

Instead of cuffs, how 'bout my nightie --
I'll tie it around your wrists tightie --
Then I'll do my worst,
Till you think that you'll burst --
How's that for carnal delightie?

51438 PERVERTS - BONDAGE Kaylin

My lover, while mounting me, slipped;
Too much baby oil, lost her grip.
I tried to hold on
But like a flash she was gone.
So next time we're chained at the hip!

51439 PERVERTS - BONDAGE

Said the pervert, "I'll take strangulation
Over whipping or straight subjugation,
To enhance the orgasm
Of victims that has 'em,
Undergoing coerced masturbation."

51440 PERVERTS - BONDAGE John Miller

Lads, I know this will give you a fright
But I'd say to your care bears, hold tight:
Won't let one of you slip
And I'm cracking my whip,
'Cause I don't feel submissive tonight.

51441 PERVERTS - BONDAGE

I want a man who will say, "Please...
Torture me, spank me and tease."
I want to hear, "Madame.."
From each Tom, Dick, and Adam,
As they crawl to me on their knees.

51442 PERVERTS - BONDAGE

She was haughtily aristocratic,
Curvaceously plump and pneumatic;
She wielded a whip
And demanded I strip,
To anticipate feelings ecstatic.

51443 PERVERTS - BONDAGE Peter Wilkins

Girl, how will I ever restrain
This thing that now boggles my brain?
Got one of those straps?
Some black leather wraps?
A bridle thing with a strong rein?

51444 PERVERTS - BONDAGE H Whelchel

I've got a surprise or two;
Will these fuzzy red handcuffs do?
Right after my quiche,
I'm grabbing the leash.
Who wears it this time, me or you?

51445 PERVERTS - BONDAGE Arden

I've been a bad boy -- this we know.
It's time for some penance to show.
Embarass me rough --
A fuzzy red cuff
Will let the world know I'm a ho'.

51446 PERVERTS - BONDAGE H WHELCHEL

Take me on a leash to the park.
Walk me around nude in the dark.
Tell all the peepers
And sleepers and creepers,
I'm dog-slave to your Matriarch.

51447 PERVERTS - BONDAGE H WHELCHEL

Down on your knees, sniveling dog!
Stay there as stiff as a log,
Else you'll feel the tip
Of my little whip,
So much you'll be left in a fog.

51448 PERVERTS - BONDAGE Arden

I'd rather that you do not holler,
When around your neck goes the collar;
Studded with spikes,
Of which the likes
Cost well over $500 dollar.

51449 PERVERTS - BONDAGE Arden

I'm takin you now for a walk;
Best not let me hear you balk
Or you'll get a kick
Smack on your dick;
Not one word, be still, do not talk!

51450 PERVERTS - BONDAGE Arden

My, we did scare that young fag!
I love when you puff up and brag
Of how you're the Queen
And all that is mean!
Thanks for removing my gag!

51451 PERVERTS - BONDAGE H WHELCHEL

You have been such a good boy,
I'll let you play with this toy.
It's soft and it's round
With two global mounds.
I know it will bring you much joy.

51452 PERVERTS - BONDAGE Arden

A dominant lady from Yale,
Liked to beat on her slaves with a flail;
Saying, "Be looking cute,
While your licking my boot,
And continue on up to my tail!

51453 PERVERTS - BONDAGE Richard Long

But secretly I will admit
That I'd really quite like to submit
To your will and lie prone,
As you ride on my bone,
Or demand that I tongue your sweet clit.

51455 PERVERTS - BONDAGE   Mick Stupp

A fine chap from England there was
Whose expertise was all the buzz.
He could tie to a tee,

51456 PERVERTS - BONDAGE   Curt

We'll start with a dinner for two,
These oysters and champagne might do.
And I must be careful
Not to do something awful,
Like spilling the cream over you.

51457 PERVERTS - BONDAGE   Archie

We have kissed, and bumped nose to nose,
And fumbled us out of our clothes.
With practice we will
Improve at this skill,
But now some new problems arose.

51458 PERVERTS - BONDAGE   Archie

I've found the nice chains and the whips,
And the cuffs. Now, your new beau quips,
It's you who decide
On whose trembling hide
We'll attach these shiny new clips.

51459 PERVERTS - BONDAGE   Archie

It has been suggested that you
Might be kinky and yes, it is true!
I'm not really minding
Who's in charge of the binding;
We can take turns since it's just for us two.

51460 PERVERTS - BONDAGE Archie

51464 PERVERTS - BONDAGE Curt

Young Pedro from Malaga, Spain,
Kept his wife on a short length of chain.
She could get to the kitchen

51465 PERVERTS - BONDAGE Peter Wilkin

His woman she might not be bitchin'
If she spent less time in the kitchen.
The leash reaches bed,
If he used his head,
With that hunger he'd get her twitchin'.

51466 PERVERTS - BONDAGE

Leather and Chains may be good upon thee,
But I'm afraid the whip's out, Ms. Magee.
I know it seems tame,
But I'm not into pain,
And whipping your butt is way beyond me!

51468 PERVERTS - BONDAGE

We will have to try our new games,
The ones that are given no names!
So - handcuffs and whips?
Or clips on the nips?
Or, maybe, inviting more dames?

51469 PERVERTS - BONDAGE

An S. and M. freak, name of Heather
Was into restraints and black leather,
Spiked heels and cruel whips,
Cock rings and cunt clips,
And tying her men to a tether.

There was a young lady named Hope
Who loved to be wrapped up in rope.
Her man said, "That's fine;
I've brought miles of twine.
And it keeps her quite still while I grope.

It seem that there is quite a hassle,
In finding a nice bondage castle.
The leather and whips
Are stinging my nips,
And some like their balls pierced with tassles!

Now, please, sweetheart, get a grip;
You're on a big self-pity trip.
Just call me a liar
But your secret desire
Includes leather, chains, and a whip!

51478 PERVERTS - BONDAGE Observer

I took time to write you this letter,
In hopes that your pain I'd unfetter.
So dear, don't bemoan it;
Just take it and own it.
And you're sure to feel a great deal better.

51479 PERVERTS - BONDAGE Observer

Glory! I shout, Alleluia!
At last I have made it with Julia!
In the stygian gloom
Of her small "secret" room,
That's filled with devices peculiar.

51480 PERVERTS - BONDAGE

Don't let her sweet countenance fool ya,
She's a dominatrix, and she'll rule ya,
While you're tied up in chains
You'll experience sweet pains,
With canes and horse whips she will school ya.

51481 PERVERTS - BONDAGE

She'll put metal clamps on your tool, ya
Have never met anyone crueller,
But that Sade bloke explains,
True pleasure's through pains,
If you're hot for it, let Julia cool ya.

51482 PERVERTS - BONDAGE

Scruples I've got by the score!
Here's one I have not said before:
There'll be no fellation
In this consultation.
(But feel free to spank me some more.)

51488 PERVERTS - BONDAGE Armand Singer P0402

I like to dress up in fine leather....
Makes a man wonder whether
I'm really as mean
As the whip makes me seem,
Or shall I torture him with a feather?

51489 PERVERTS - BONDAGE

And when we are through with this game,
Right after I came and I came
From submissive lips
On the tip of my clit,
He will say, "Is it my turn now, Mame?"

51490 PERVERTS - BONDAGE

"After you lick my boots clean,"
I will say if I'm still feeling mean.
I'll watch him adore me
Until it will bore me.
It's time for a new sexy scene...

51491 PERVERTS - BONDAGE

I like the idea of traction!
I would love to see your reaction,
If I tickle your gear,
And suckle your ear,
Or practice the opposite action.

51492 PERVERTS - BONDAGE Marlene

I've never been strapped in the buff.
(Well, maybe a blindfold or cuff.)
But traction? Well, Hell!
Lets try it a spell!
Just leave my thing free for your muff.

51493 PERVERTS - BONDAGE H WHELCHEL

Perhaps with a strong block and tackle,
I'll hang you, ass-down, from a shackle,
Then hoist up and down,
And spin you around,
And spurt you chock-full of my spackle...

51494 PERVERTS - BONDAGE H WHELCHEL

There're reasons this cannot be done.
My stomach's not steady, for one.
I'd get motion sick;
I'd barf on your prick.
Does that really sound like much fun?

With stiletto heels walk up my back.
Feed with such domination,
My masochistic elation,
If you want that I'm good in the sack.

51497 PERVERTS - BONDAGE

Hey, if I put you in a sack,
And then walked all over you back,
You'd turn black and blue,
And when I was through,
I'd throw you out on the train track.

Bard Frank's in New York, it's been said,
Just roaming the streets wearing red
Designer pajamas,
Mailed from the Bahamas,

51672 PERVERTS - NECROS Travis Brasell

Is owt in this life any sillier
Than waiting for hours getting chillier
Than ice, as one's date
Thaws to just the right state,
To indulge in one's lust, necrophilia?

51673 PERVERTS - NECROS Peter Wilkins

So after these last few you've read,
You can't take your mind off the dead.
But if your will fails,
Deceased tell no tails,
Except for new holes, enough said.

October, there's a chill on the breeze.
The leaves lose their grip on the trees.
And frost-hardened soil
Means back-breaking toil
To dig up and fuck dear Louise.

51675 PERVERTS - NECROS Tiddy Ogg

Louise, I remember her well;
The ooze, the slime and the smell.
And the flies 'round her head.
Now that she's dead,
Have the softer parts started to jell?

51676 PERVERTS - NECROS Tiddy Ogg

Well, perhaps there's a bit of aroma
That's grown since she fell in that coma.
But keeping her cool,
'Neath the ground, by the pool,
Ensures she don't get melanoma.

51677 PERVERTS - NECROS Tiddy Ogg

If for love, you must dig in the clart,
Your toils tug the strings of my heart.
But love labor's not lost.
Do say grace to the frost,
As it keeps her from falling apart.

Just delighted in 3-day old quim.

But the green pus that just covered him.

51787 PERVERTS - NECROS - MORGUE   S C Saint

Minger is at it again;
Bi-sexual necro's is a sin.
His illusion of fun,
Is to suck down a cold-one,
And there's no way to tell where he's been.

51788 PERVERTS - NECROS - MORGUE

He grins and says, "I'm a shit,
But it does have it's own benefit;
My date's don't talk back
While I work on their crack,
And they've never once told me to quit."

For decomposed virgins,
Took Lucy back home in a cab.

51792 PERVERTS - NECROS - MORGUE   Peter Wilkins

He left poor young Lucy to thaw
In the dark with some seafood. The flaw
Was his plan went to Hell;
He could not, by the smell
Pick her out from the oysters (all raw)!

Put the bones in a basket,
And then waited 'til all was clear.

Is focused on filling the breach.

52524 PHILOS - ADVICE Norm Storer P9603

Now I'm old. All my songs have been sung.
And worse yet, my springs are now sprung.
Could I go around twice,
I would heed the advice,
Of all Realtors, "Get lots while you're young."

52525 PHILOS - ADVICE Loren Fitzhugh P9912

For ages I have heard it said,
That men are too easily lead.
But Man's like a horse:
Once given his course,
He'll gallop when given his head.

52526 PHILOS - ADVICE SFA

"Well done, gal," I say with a grin,
Too soon though, a fella will win
A place in the game,
Of life: whence he came,
Is where he'll ever try to get in.

52527 PHILOS - ADVICE

The reincarnated Res, I,
Back from my travels decry:
Don't sweat the petty things,
Don't pet the sweaty things,
And leave the rest in the sty.

52528 PHILOS - ADVICE Res Ipsa

With a conscience we're able to see
Just how bad we're permitted to be.
At the same time it's true
That what's wicked for you
Mightn't be half so wicked for me.

52529 PHILOS - ADVICE Limeratomy - Euwer P8708

A hitch-hiker shouldn't succumb
To offers of peppermint gum:
An edict this isn't,
With threat of imprison't,
But merely a crude rule of thumb.

52530 PHILOS - ADVICE

A famous philosoppher, Occam
(To upset his readers and shock 'em),
Wrote, "The very best way
To keep women at bay,
Is spread 'em out flat and stiff cock 'em!"

52531 PHILOS - ADVICE Armand E Singer 407

Philosophers say and repeat
That life's a shit sandwich, complete;
And it's gospel, I guess,
The more bread we possess,
The less shit we'll be having to eat.

52532 PHILOS - ADVICE

Oh don't eat it dear, that won't do;
'Round here we just flush down the loo.
Sewer workers, I've heard,
Get paid time and a turd,
But I wouldn't do it, would you?

52533 PHILOS - ADVICE

Oh yeah sure, they say life is the top!
Have a dance and a waltz and a bop.
A sandwich of shit?
And that? That is it?
What you say is that life is a plop!

52534 PHILOS - ADVICE

I'm in bed. There's a really good show.
But my eyes won't stay open. Oh no!
In the a.m., it's one.
I awake; my show's done.
Just like life, the end I can't know.

52535 PHILOS - ADVICE Andrea Dietrich

Who knows what the future may hold?
Dark seas you must cross and be bold.
If it fucks up, okay.
If it doesn't Wey Hey!
Have a laugh, pull some birds, now you're told.

52536 PHILOS - ADVICE

You can call out the sheriff and cop,
Have the posses ride hard till they drop;
Man's a son-of-a-bitch
With a murderous itch,
All the scratching on earth will not stop.

52537 PHILOS - ADVICE Warrick Elrod

Do you think meditations on Buddha
Go better with beer or with Gouda.
And with peace and eclat,
When I fancy a chat,
Should I phone my Fadder or Muddah?

52538 PHILOS - ADVICE

To procrastinate steals all your time,
Caution those who believe it's a crime.
Yet, it's often agreed
That more hurry's less speed;
Not much reason, a whole lotta rhyme!

52539 PHILOS - ADVICE Anon

Must one really have something to say?
I do this for pleasure and play.
Why be rigid and stiff?
Who cares, what's the diff?
Don't just think black and white, ponder gray.

52540 PHILOS - ADVICE

In Lent, the kids are complaining:
No candy on which to be training.
Then an easter Choc spree
Makes them sick -- which to me
Proves no good ever comes from abstaining.

52541 PHILOS - ADVICE   Prof M-G   TP9802

Tomorrow becomes yesterday.
Be able to look back and say,
"I surely had fun
And got a lot done."
Do not regret your life away.

52542 PHILOS - ADVICE

By friends that you keep you are guaged;
Do not over words be enraged,
And avoid as a rule
A dispute with a fool,
Lest you find he is likewise engaged.

52543 PHILOS - ADVICE   Albin Chaplin   3024-2586

If philosophy teaches one thing,
It's that people should do their own thing.
If you run out of gas,
Forget that young lass,
And don't get your ass in a sling.

52544 PHILOS - ADVICE   Al Willis   TP9807

My friend, do not fret, you'll not find
The answers those seek, who are blind.
The sages all natter
'Bout the start of all matter.
That arrangement had not you in mind.

52545 PHILOS - ADVICE

My mind has not ever lacked learning
'Bout mysteries I know lots concerning.
But I learned very late
Learning's ultimate fate...
In the end 'scapes wisdom, still spurning.

52546 PHILOS - ADVICE

Here's a query posed by Jake McFee,
"Is it possible for one to be
Hyperactive and slothful,
Forgiving and wrathful,
Shifty, shiftless, concomitantly?"

52547 PHILOS - ADVICE Loren Fitzhugh P0208

Here common sense takes quite a beating,
And logic's a victim of cheating;
The pudding, not kiddin',
Is not where it's hidden,
The testing must lie in the EATING.

52548 PHILOS - ADVICE Norm Storer P9410

What a painful reality, for sure;
You have to stop going with her --
This fact must be stated:
Reality's over-rated!
Fantasy is much better, dear sir!

52549 PHILOS - ADVICE

A philosopher stood to proclaim:
"Not to make your own mark, is a shame.
Were it mind, or physique,
Everyone is 'unique.'
So, to differ, you need to be 'same.'"

52550 PHILOS - ADVICE Graig Gigol P0205

I can't say who's right or who's wrong,
And I don't want to join or belong.
Since reason can show
That we truely don't know;
Till we do, can't we all get along?

52551 PHILOS - ADVICE

All our problems, the Stoics enlighten us,
Are the upshot of too much uptightness.
Let's stay placid, their pitch is,
Through life's high-points and hitches.
Don't let worldly things flatter or frighten us!

52552 PHILOS - ADVICE Jim Weaver Collection

Said an erudite sinologue, "How Shall I try to describe to you, Tao?
It is come, it is go,
It is yes, it is no,
Yet it's neither -- you understand now?"

52553 PHILOS - ADVICE R. J. P. Hewison

The experts in life are named They;
All truth is found in what They say.
I hope that one day
They will go away,
But damn, just how long will they stay?

52554 PHILOS - ADVICE Travis Brasell

My whole life, They've been my guide;
They make the path where I stride.
Each step is subjected
By what They directed;
Just once They should let my steps slide.

52555 PHILOS - ADVICE   Travis Brasell

You know that They are after you;
There's nothing They will let you do.
They will come along
To tell you you're wrong.
You know what They say is all true.

52556 PHILOS - ADVICE   Travis Brasell

I wonder where They learned it all?
Do you think They ever will fall
And not know a thing?
They should have a fling;
What They need is to have a ball!

52557 PHILOS - ADVICE   Travis Brasell

I'll make this a wonderful day;
I'll do thing in my own damn way.
Though experts They be,
I'm gonna be me;
No more will I care when They say!

52558 PHILOS - ADVICE   Travis Brasell

If your success at first is denied,
Destroy all evidence that you tried.
May be conclusion
Came with confusion,
Attendant upon brain being fried.

52559 PHILOS - ADVICE   Daniel Ford

Who hesitates is probably right;
You'd avoid precipitous fight,
If with poker group
(And her is the scoop!)
Never do clever card tricks, you wight!

52560 PHILOS - ADVICE Daniel Ford

While you may be alone for success,
Everyone sees you make a big mess,
And you seem alone
As long as you drone,
But slightest mistakae they address.

52561 PHILOS - ADVICE Daniel Ford

Why is it the harder the butter,
The softer the bread for my cutter?
Just as in the breach,
If itch beyond reach,
Grows intense, makes my eyelids flutter!

52562 PHILOS - ADVICE Daniel Ford

To steal from one is plagarism,
Nicholai Lobachevskyism,
But steal from many,
Ideas any,
That we regard through research prism.

52563 PHILOS - ADVICE Daniel Ford

Says the cynic when he's spinning,
"Two wrongs are only the beginning."
Two wrongs make not right fair,
But four rights go nowhere;
That is where you meet yourself, grinning.

52564 PHILOS - ADVICE Daniel Ford

Perhaps you'd like with eagles to soar,
But find yourself here on the floor.
Just remember this,
If great heights you miss,
No weasel's sucked in jet engine roar.

52565 PHILOS - ADVICE Daniel Ford

Just as no good deed's unpunished,
One of life's truths is unvarnished:
After you need it most,
Experience plays host;
You see how halo get tarnished.

52566 PHILOS - ADVICE Daniel Ford

Here's a Newtonian witticism,
From "correctness" empiricism:
For every action,
There is some faction --
Equal and opposite criticism.

52567 PHILOS - ADVICE Daniel Ford

Our gene pool has problems enow,
But the greatest is, I here trow,
That in such a late day,
We've no lifeguard to say,
"You there, out of the gene pool, NOW!"

52568 PHILOS - ADVICE Daniel Ford

I'm one always giving advice --
Some good, some not very nice --
But know that I speak
With tongue in cheek --
'Cause I've tried it all once or twice!

52569 PHILOS - ADVICE Kaylin

The world keeps on turning -- that's true.
It takes us along, me and you.
Though sometimes we're glad
And sometimes we're sad,
It won't change whatever we do.

52570 PHILOS - ADVICE   Eva Bekker

Maybe that today it seems right
To voice our opinion -- we might Find out we were wrong
And chose a bad song,
Thus find ourselves in a big plight.

52571 PHILOS - ADVICE   Eva Bekker

Perhaps it ain't always real good,
To speak of the things that we should
Keep locked in our head
Or take them to bed
Or hide them out in some dark wood.

52572 PHILOS - ADVICE   Eva Bekker

'Cause always opinions do hurt
Or make us sound slightly absurd,
To people who think
Our ideas do stink,
Accusing us to stir up dirt.

52573 PHILOS - ADVICE   Eva Bekker

I just kicked myself off a group,
A really fine and funny troop,
'Cause my chattering mouth
Spit it out, North and South,
My peace-loving politics poop.

52574 PHILOS - ADVICE   Eva Bekker

Whenever someone comes along
And warbles a discordant song,
Seems only all right
If a veteran might
Point out to them where they were wrong.

52575 PHILOS - ADVICE Jeanie

The great swarming Internet masses
Are made up of several classes.
There's Left and Right Wing
And I'm sure of one thing:
There's some that can clearly be asses.

52576 PHILOS - ADVICE Jeanie

And yesterday, 'twas one of those
With a clear cut intent to oppose,
Who tangled with you.
Eva, I tell you true --
Your post received many bravos.

52577 PHILOS - ADVICE Jeanie

Your nerves are a little bit frayed,
But what you classify as a "tirade",
From here where I sit
It seem to befit --
All you did was call a spade a spade.

52578 PHILOS - ADVICE Jeanie

Your announcement has made me quite sad
And several others feel bad.
It won't be the same place
Without your smiling face.
Don't leave because of a nomad.

52579 PHILOS - ADVICE Jeanie

Take a break, if you must, but be sure
To return when you've taken the cure.
'Tis with love and concern
That I bid you return --
And that isn't just bovine manure!

52580 PHILOS - ADVICE Jeanie

Well, Jeanie, it's days now I think,
That I haven't slept a wee wink.
I'm cold and I'm sick;
My head's like a brick.
My sanity seems on the brink.

52581 PHILOS - ADVICE Eva Bekker

I wonder why 'twas such a shock
When the trolling one tried hard to rock
The boat we were rowing,
While a strong wind was blowing.
I've been taken now to the dry dock.

52582 PHILOS - ADVICE Eva Bekker

This old velssel needs a repair;
A bit of fresh paint here and there.
New flag and new name,
But no second flame
With ladies like Mrs Contrair.

52583 PHILOS - ADVICE Eva Bekker

Gone tomorrow, but yet here today,
And at most, it's not that long a stay.
Although dreams we fulfill,
We might keep in mind still
It's about "those we meet 'long the way."

52584 PHILOS - ADVICE Loren Fitzhugh P0304

The Bigot, the Slave, and the Fool:
None guided by Reason's bright rule...
The Fool 'cause he cannot,
The Slave 'cause he dare not,
The Bigot just will not, that ghoul.

52585 PHILOS - ADVICE Tutta Gioia

If Velcro were used for a zipper,
And Baptists believed in Yom Kippur,
And all of the time
We all spoke in rhyme,
The world would be way much more hipper.

52586 PHILOS - ADVICE H Whelchel

Life you must live to the limit;
Every day, every hour, every minute.
But in retrospect,
It's fun to reflect
How you thought you were important in it.

52587 PHILOS - ADVICE Frode S. Stringer

Near the start of our life is pubescence,
Which begins the nest stage -- adolescence.
Then quickly senescence
Creates obsolescence --
And that, of man's life, is the essence.

52588 PHILOS - ADVICE Laurence Perrine P8503

All the things of each natural kind, then,
Have an essence their form has assigned them.
What this function proclaims
Is their natural aims:
What they'd do should no circumstance bind them.

52589 PHILOS - ARISTOTLE Lim Hist of Philos

There's one claim, then, that calls for no gripe:
Things all do what's the rule for their Type.
Or, if not, then they would,
If they possibly could,
Just as soon as the time for it's ripe.

52590 PHILOS - ARISTOTLE Lim Hist of Philos

Thus bodies, when hurled into space,
Seek return to their "natural place";
And the fox, faced with rabbit,
Will give in to the habit
Of eating it after the chase.

52591 PHILOS - ARISTOTLE Lim Hist of Philos

Well, some will insist that's just trite,
And not worth its own paper to write.
But despite all our biases,
It's too bad -- that's all science is,
If the Aristotelians are right.

52592 PHILOS - ARISTOTLE Lim Hist of Philos

In any case, skipping all ballyhoo,
Let's just turn to their theory of Value.
Perhaps here's at least theory
That's somewhat less dreary.
(Even though it might still fail to wow you!)

52593 PHILOS - ARISTOTLE Lim Hist of Philos

Unlike Plato, ones Good's overreaching's
Not a factor in this systems teachings.
Here's the truth, be it known,
Is "To each one its own"
(Though each "one", it turns out, is a species).

52594 PHILOS - ARISTOTLE Lim Hist of Philos

Thus while "good" has mere relative force,
It's the species that's always its source.
It's not relative, then,
To mere women and men--
But to Man (as opposed, say, to Horse).

52595 PHILOS - ARISTOTLE Lim Hist of Philos

I was brought up on old Aristotle,
And won't change a jit or a tottle,
And that's saying a lot,
Not a jit, not a jot,
I won't alter--no, no, I'll nottle.

52596 PHILOS - ARISTOTLE C. S. Cook

As we ponder his thinking's anatomy,
Let's recall what a genius he had to be:
Though he founded Lyceum,
He got started by bein'
Prize Pupil in Plato's Academy!

52597 PHILOS - ARISTOTLE Lim Hist of Philos P5111

Of contention, now, here's the first bone:
Do pure Forms have a realm all their own?
Here's the answer: they merely,
Save when wedded materially,
Exist only in minds where they're known.

52598 PHILOS - ARISTOTLE Lim Hist of Philos P9511

And our minds?--Well, they're merely those factors
That define us as rational actors.
So your mind--that's not you.
But some things that you do.
(Though you wouldn't be you if you lacked yours!)

52599 PHILOS - ARISTOTLE Lim Hist of Philos P9511

So while Plato would be disappointed,
I'm no psyche (as ancient Greeks coined it):
I'm a mind-body whole,
Not some hinde-bound old soul
Whose main wish is its hide never joined it.

52600 PHILOS - ARISTOTLE   Lim Hist of Philos P9511

Trust, Pure Mind, insofar as I've got some,
Might survive though my body's mere flotsam.
But for me--no survival
Past the Reaper's arrival,
No matter how bad I many want some!

52601 PHILOS - ARISTOTLE   Lim Hist of Philos P9511

Thus our souls (in their Reasoning fraction)
May indeed be divine their action.
But a life after death?--
Well, just don't hold your breath:
It's a drem that can't get satisfaction.

52602 PHILOS - ARISTOTLE   Lim Hist of Philos P9511

Though no Platonist greets this with chortles,
Don't expect that you'll cross Pearly Portals!
Go ahead and say "Darn it!"
But by nature incarnate,
We're essentially bound to be mortals.

52603 PHILOS - ARISTOTLE   Lim Hist of Philos P9511

Aristotle, a scholar so rare,
Thought so hard that he lost all his hair.
On his head and his chin
Where the hair had once been --
Why, all you see now, is the glare.

52604 PHILOS - ARISTOTLE   Neal Wilgus   P8311

That crafty old man Aristotle,
Took his friends to look at a bottle,
Saying, "Its causes are four,
No less and no more.
Glass, shape, vintner, and drinking full throttle.

52605 PHILOS - ARISTOTLE L S Sprigge

They say Aristotle was bright
And wisdom was always his plight.
If he so willed,
Then could he build
A ship in a bottle at night?

52606 PHILOS - ARISTOTLE Jim Weaver Collection

As Aristotle, peripetetic,
Exhibited motion kinetic,
He induced mild nausea
By coming right toward 'ya,
Revolving with theories poetic.

52607 PHILOS - ARISTOTLE Bruce Schneider

King Phillip a tutor he sought till
He finally chose Aristotle.
"To my son disclose
What ye know, he knows".
And so Aristotle taught till.

52608 PHILOS - ARISTOTLE Irving Superior P8308

Descartes, seeking what we could know,
Sought the point past which doubt wouldn't go.
For he thought most men lacked
Proper means to tell fact
From what ain't necessarily so.

52609 PHILOS - DESCARTES Lim Hist of Philos P9306

Of the modes by which mankind cognizes,
He insisted on more than surmises.
So that's why he said,
"If to Truth you'd be led,
Don't assume what you see with your eyes, is!"

52610 PHILOS - DESCARTES   Lim Hist of Philos P9306

While dreaming, indeed, in my bed,
All those visions might still fill my head.
(And in fact--Why not add it?--
What's to prove I've not "had it,"
And have long since been dreaming while dead?!")

52611 PHILOS - DESCARTES   Lim Hist of Philos P9306

And while this doubt is strange, yet I fear it;
Just suppose I'm beguiled by some spirit--
One so potent and ruthless,
I'm condemned to live truthless,
Doomed to seek truth, but never get near it!

52612 PHILOS - DESCARTES   Lim Hist of Philos P9306

There is, though, release from this jam.
For not all that I think can be sham.
(One who says this is dubious
Would just show what a boob he is!)
After all, if I'm doubting, I am!

52613 PHILOS - DESCARTES   Lim Hist of Philos P9306

Now perhaps this seems trivial--or nearly--
But in fact we should cherish it dearly.
For it helps us find out
What's immune from all doubt:
It's whatever's "distinct" and seen "clearly."

52614 PHILOS - DESCARTES   Lim Hist of Philos P9306

But among its most promising lessons,
All this doubting sheds light on my presence:
While all else might be reverie,
Free of thinking I'll never be;
So it's Thought that comprises my essence.

52615 PHILOS - DESCARTES Lim Hist of Philos P9306

Thus with body and mind in convention,
We have mental and brutish dimension.
But the latter's no prius
When we know it to be us
Through a clear and distinct apprehension.

52616 PHILOS - DESCARTES Lim Hist of Philos P9307

Of course, if I want to speak strictly,
I can't posit the body too quickly.
To make sure it's for real,
I've got first to reveal
How I know that no spirit has tricked me.

52617 PHILOS - DESCARTES Lim Hist of Philos P9307

You might think a hymn is worth humming,
Once you see how this rescue's forth coming.
For it's God who's our savior,
And his own good behavior
Is what saves us from doubt that is numbing.

52618 PHILOS - DESCARTES Lim Hist of Philos P9307

If I know that a God's in existence,
Hyperbolical doubt's met resistance:
If it's He who's my genesis,
Then my fear's found its nemesis,
And I'm freed from its nagging insistence.

52619 PHILOS - DESCARTES Lim Hist of Philos P9307

To free us indeed from this vise,
Descartes moved not once but thrice.
For he proved in three ways
We're protected all days
By Someone, both potent--and nice!

52620 PHILOS - DESCARTES Lim Hist of Philos P9307

Now to many, these tries to unchain us
Don't deserve all the time they detain us.
Some would say: Idle wishes--
It's a circle that's vicious,
And a logic that's patently heinous!

52621 PHILOS - DESCARTES Lim Hist of Philos P9307

Without proof that it isn't Satanic,
How could logic erase sceptical panic?
Thus (to some) what comes first,
If your chains would be burst,
Must be something much more epiphanic.

52622 PHILOS - DESCARTES Lim Hist of Philos P9307

But aside from the crowing indignance
Of the fear that our bodies are figments,
Yet it's still strictly true:
None of that's part of you.
(After all, how could minds possess ligaments?)

52623 PHILOS - DESCARTES Lim Hist of Philos P9307

In any case, mind/body fusion
Can't be merely a hoax or illusion.
For if so, then our brains
Wouldn't send all those pains,
When our limbs suffer cuts and contusion.

52624 PHILOS - DESCARTES Lim Hist of Philos P9307

How to say, while they're two, and not single,
Why the Self feels one's Skin itch and tingle?--
Well the answer's at hand
In the Pineal Gland,
Where the mind and the brain intermingle.

52625 PHILOS - DESCARTES Lim Hist of Philos P9308

The mind, standing guard at this station,
Feels mere brain-states convert to sensation.
And, in turn, this position
Is where nerves, through volition,
Move the limbs, as effects of mentation.

52626 PHILOS - DESCARTES Lim Hist of Philos P9308

As for things in the animal section,
They've no need for such cause and effection:
Mere machines--they're as psychical
As a clock or bicycle,
Lacking minds to help give them direction.

52627 PHILOS - DESCARTES Lim Hist of Philos P9308

(Even humans could walk down the street
Without spirits controlling their feet.
With pre-programmed controls,
They'd be blind to their goals--
Though they smile and say "Hi" when they meet)

52628 PHILOS - DESCARTES Lim Hist of Philos P9308

Now from bodies, if God lets it be,
We're of course each potentially free.
When He finds it congenial,
I'll depart from my pineal,
Since that's part of my body--not me.

52629 PHILOS - DESCARTES Lim Hist of Philos P9308

Until then, I'll have no idea
What to hope for and what next to fear.
And who knows if, post mortem,
I'll just die of sheer boredom,
Lacking organs to see and to hear!

52630 PHILOS - DESCARTES Lim Hist of Philos P9308

But even while tenured on earth,
One's innately provided from birth:
Were all food for thought
Just what sense-data brought,
Human knowledge would be of no worth.

52631 PHILOS - DESCARTES Lim Hist of Philos P9308

What's the essence of matter: Extension!
Hence mathematics must guide by prehension.
But ideas of this kind
Only enter one's mind,
With the help of some divine intervention.

52632 PHILOS - DESCARTES Lim Hist of Philos P9308

Thus it's clear that, through sources empirical,
I see nothing that's perfectly spherical.
Such conceptions must then
First have entered my ken
By a method not short of a miracle.

52633 PHILOS - DESCARTES Lim Hist of Philos P9308

So there's no need to worry your head
That your life might be empty while dead.
If it's lacking the filling
That would make it all thrilling,
You can contemplate Euclid instead!

52634 PHILOS - DESCARTES Lim Hist of Philos P9308

"I am, thus I think," opined Les;
The poor boy was under some stress.
"That's not right." A pause.
"I see now, of course.
I'm putting the Cartes 'fore the Des."

52635 PHILOS - DESCARTES

"I don't give a hoot,' said a particle,
"If I can't have the definite article.
If cogito sum
Pronounces my doom,
To hell with all systems Descartesical.

52636 PHILOS - DESCARTES Conrad Aiken

In school I went right to the source
Of philosophies and of discourse.
My counselor said "Son,
You need only one
More class -- take DesCartes for the course.

52637 PHILOS - DESCARTES Jon Gearhart

I think I am not going to pass;
So I'm not, that's the crux of this class.
The proof that Descartes
Was just an old fart --
Though I knew this, I still failed, alas.

52638 PHILOS - DESCARTES Jon Gearhart

Is it true that a chap named Descartes
Saw a new metaphysical start,
Or could it just be
That you, he and me
Are your dream, you deluded old fart!

52639 PHILOS - DESCARTES Peter Wilkins

Indeed it is all as you find:
Only down in the murk of my mind,
Do we three exist?
And because I am pissed,
We talk rot, as I'm sure you've opined.

52640 PHILOS - DESCARTES Peter Wilkins

Dr. Johnson, when sober or pissed,
Could be frequently heard to insist,
Letting out a great fart:
"Yes, I follow Decartes,
I stink, therefore I exist!"

52641 PHILOS - DESCARTES A. Cinna

One day, a man of good cheer,
Asked Descartes if he wanted a beer.
What the man got
Was "I think not",
While he watched Descartes disappear!

52642 PHILOS - DESCARTES Bob Davies

There was a great thinker, Decartes
Who was severely plagued by his farts.
When he had to lecture,
His ass would conjecture,
But boy! That fellow had smarts.

52736 PHILOS - PLATO Lim Hist of Philos

Still, philosophers shouldn't just stare,

In any case, kudos are due

"Something is, or is not--there's no median:
Simple falsehood!" said Plato , Athenian.

Let's just kick him right off the procenium.

52746 PHILOS - PLATO Lim Hist of Philos P9310

In the book of which Plato's authorial,
True Being is quite incorporeal.
But while matter falls short
Of what's actual 'tout court',
It's not null, but at least somehwat more real.

52747 PHILOS - PLATO Lim Hist of Philos P9310

Thus "Being admits of degrees"
Was among the Platonic decrees.
What mere sense makes apparent
At most has a share in't;
But it's never as real as you please.

52748 PHILOS - PLATO Lim Hist of Philos P9310

What's more real, on the Platonist's menu,
Has its home in a more heavenly venue.
Only starts in this firmament
Lend a meaning that's permanent
To whatever sensations might send you.

52749 PHILOS - PLATO Lim Hist of Philos P9310

Thus consider, for clarity's sake,
Shaping rings, and the shape they can take;
What we've made is material,
But their shape--that's ethereal--
Since it's rings, not their shape, humans make.

52750 PHILOS - PLATO Lim Hist of Philos P9310

On the theory that Plato deployed,
In itself, all of matter's mere Void.
When there's more that we're seeing:
That's its brush with Real Being--
Which affects it, yet stays unalloyed.

52751 PHILOS - PLATO Lim Hist of Philos P9310

Whether most will agree, then--or few will-
All of matter is basically dual.
But now what about us,
Who can know thing are thus--
What are we on Platonic construal?

52752 PHILOS - PLATO Lim Hist of Philos P9310

We're mere prisoners; our bodies are cells--
Fell from Heaven, yet why no one tells.
Only one thing is sure:
If our lives have been pure,
We'll go home after hearing death's knells.

52753 PHILOS - PLATO Lim Hist of Philos P9311

But for most--maybe eight out of nine--
Merely sensual living seems fine.
What they maybe don't know

They're just apt to come back as mere swine.

52754 PHILOS - PLATO Lim Hist of Philos P9311

Only love for Platonic Ideals:
By its nature, that's all a soul feels.
But once it's been jailed,
It's of course soon assailed
By a gang of less lofty appeals.

52755 PHILOS - PLATO Lim Hist of Philos P9311

Thus a soul, somewhat fallen and blighted,
Might let more than one inpetus guide it.
To seek Wisdom's just one--
But now Fame, and sheer Fun,
Join the list of the things that excite it.

52756 PHILOS - PLATO Lim Hist of Philos P9311

Still, for those who'd regain their high station,

52757 PHILOS - PLATO Lim Hist of Philos P9311

On the other hand--no point denying,
It takes time to get ready for flying:
Though to say it's to rue it,
There are few who can do it
Without several times living and dying.

52758 PHILOS - PLATO Lim Hist of Philos P9311

In any case, journey's inception
Is the data received through perception.
But that's only a start, of course,
Since our aim is to chart a course
To the Forms of which they're a reflection.

52759 PHILOS - PLATO Lim Hist of Philos P9311

From the very first things we cognize,
We'll perceive how our souls start to rise.
But we'll soon start to sink
If, instead of to think.
We're content when we're feasting our eyes.

52760 PHILOS - PLATO   Lim Hist of Philos P9311

Our senses at most should remind us
Of a vision of Truth far behind us.
But were we more keen
Just on "making the scene,"
The whatever we've seen, will just blind us.

52761 PHILOS - PLATO   Lim Hist of Philos P9312

Thus salvation from earthly confinements
Needs more study of Reason's refinements.
To reach heavenly altitude?
Only those will learn how to do't
Who "get off" on their Logic assignments.

52762 PHILOS - PLATO   Lim Hist of Philos P9312

It's the Good--on the way Plato told it--
That's the Source from which Truth is unfolded.
But as source of all light,
In itself, its too bright
To let all but a handful behold it.

52763 PHILOS - PLATO   Lim Hist of Philos P9312

Thus testing will give indication
Of the ones bound for high education.
The rest are then routed,
Insofar as they're suited,
To (a) Army (b) skilled vocation.

52764 PHILOS - PLATO   Lim Hist of Philos P9401

A little known fact about Plato,
He invented the concept of NATO;
The Swiss Army Knife;
The inflatable wife;
And the trouserless jacket potato.

52765 PHILOS - PLATO   Bill Wall

Said Plato, "The things that we feel
Are not ontologically real,
But just the excrescence
Of numinous essence,
Our senses can never reveal."
(ontological - being or existence)
52766 PHILOS - PLATO   Basil Ransome-Davies

There once was a thinker called Plato,
Who said "this our world's second rate-oh.
It is just a poor copy
Of something less sloppy,
Where all is precise and first rate-oh.

52767 PHILOS - PLATO   L S Sprigge

A young scholar now takes the position
That Plato-despite what tradition
And philosophers claim--
Received his nickname
Because of his wooden dentition.

52768 PHILOS - PLATO   A. N. Wilkins   P9302

"Be yourself" is advice given gratis.
Those who scorn it, you'd think mad as hatters.
But the goal that's been preached
Couldn't even be reached
By the maker that some think, begat us.

52769 PHILOS - SARTRE   Lim Hist of Philos P9402

When god's worshipped as personal spirit,
Then religion's in fact incoherent.
For while concepts of deity
Imply their ipseity,   (individual identity)
Nothing personal ever gets near it.

52770 PHILOS - SARTRE   Lim Hist of Philos P9402

Those aware what the Sartrian scheme is,
Thus may find that it's somewhat extremist.
While Faith is abjured
On the ground God's absurd,
Still to be Him's what everyone's dream is.

52771 PHILOS - SARTRE   Lim Hist of Philos P9402

Now denying we are what we are
Might seem more than a little bizarre.
Yet, the proud and conceited
Will always get cheated:
Their self-love's always love from afar.

52772 PHILOS - SARTRE   Lim Hist of Philos P9402

Be you friends, then, of bodies or souls,
Where you fit's in the same pigeon-holes.
Say we're body or mind:
Your mistake's one in kind.
For no person's a-being; they're goals.

52773 PHILOS - SARTRE   Lim Hist of Philos P9402

Undeniably, a body's one facet,
But not all we can count as our asset.
Still, it's not in the right key
To think of one's psyche
As a Cartesian Ego that "has" it.

52774 PHILOS - SARTRE   Lim Hist of Philos P9402

The psychical side of our coin
Is just choices of where we'd be going.
But the logic's a loser
That says choice needs a chooser,
So that my going's really Ego-ing.

52775 PHILOS - SARTRE Lim Hist of Philos P9402

When I say that it's I who've intended,
I'm acknowledging history transcended.
(In a sense that's just "me",
But it's something I flee
By conceding that time hasn't ended.)

52776 PHILOS - SARTRE Lim Hist of Philos P9403

While "I am" in the form of my past,
Yet I'm not, since that's something surpassed.
Thus the fatal deterrent
To just being current
Is that Now disappears so damned fast.

52777 PHILOS - SARTRE Lim Hist of Philos P9403

In the Church-of-What's-Happening-Now,
All you'll worship's a dead sacred cow.
For it's harder to sever
Yet-to-come/gone-forever
Than to pull Ying from Yang in the Tao.

52778 PHILOS - SARTRE Lim Hist of Philos P9403

So while those in Bad Faith may all fuss,
There's nothing that makes all of us.
If your faith's got true purity,
Look for me in futurity!
For it's never I am but: just was.

52779 PHILOS - SARTRE Lim Hist of Philos P9403

Though the title implies derogation,
Bad Faith isn't mere fabrication.
If a lie, it's so common
Even bishop and brahman
Escape on at most rare occasion.

52780 PHILOS - SARTRE Lim Hist of Philos P9403

Bad faith tries in ways more than one
To find Being where there's really none.
Thus while granting it's true
That we are what we do,
Some pretend that they are what they've done.

52781 PHILOS - SARTRE Lim Hist of Philos P9403

(But the source of Bad Faith and its sham
Isn't always what's over the dam.
For not resting on laurels,
I'd be still out for quarrels
If I claimed there's some "I" that I am.)

52782 PHILOS - SARTRE Lim Hist of Philos P9403

Thus Bad Faith, despite all its gainsaying,
Takes for Being what's really just Playing.
In the words of one sage:
Life's just roles on a stage--
From your youth to when temples are graying.

52783 PHILOS - SARTRE Lim Hist of Philos P9403

Still, don't think, once you finally are grayed,
You can rest, since your dues are then paid.
For remember this fact,
From the first to last act,
You're no player; you're just a role played.

52784 PHILOS - SARTRE Lim Hist of Philos P9404

From cool planning to maiden aunt's manias,
All our lives are thus really spontaneous.
Since no Self stands behind them,
There's no substance to bind them.
We're more mutable that even Lon Chaney is!

52785 PHILOS - SARTRE Lim Hist of Philos P9404

And so why, as you ask with propriety,
Is there so much Bad Faith in society?
Sartre's reply, if we heed him,
Is fear of our freedom:
When Bad Faith says Goodby--Hi, Anxiety!

52786 PHILOS - SARTRE Lim Hist of Philos P9404

Thus the age of commitment's paralysis
Sees Jung's archetypes and Freudian Phalluses.
To self-choice the response is
"Let's blame the unconscious!"
If you're anxious, try psychoanalysis.

52787 PHILOS - SARTRE Lim Hist of Philos P9404

But such theories, however exotic,
Can't explain either saint or psychotic.
For to say what we did
Is the work of our id,
Is to say something quite id-iotic.

52788 PHILOS - SARTRE Lim Hist of Philos P9404

An act's purpose is never laid bare,
Through a goal of which it's unaware.
To say these action's goals
Aren't in these but in those,
Is like dying your roots, not the hair.

52789 PHILOS - SARTRE Lim Hist of Philos P9404

So for minds that have Sartiran bents,
Such advice is worth less than ten cents.
The main flaw in such "shrinks,"
As the Sartrian thinks
Is you'll never get Whither from Whence!

52790 PHILOS - SARTRE Lim Hist of philos P9404

But Sartre, with a blow,

Socrates asked, "Why, pray, should I die,
I'm no great beam nor mote in your eye?"
Replied his tormentors,
Resenters, dissenters,
"It's those damned endless questions, that's why."

"Don't drink!" they told Socrates,
"Escape with your wife overseas!"
"Hemlock or wedlock,"
He said, "is a deadlock --
I'll have one for the road, if you please."

52815 PHILOS - SOCRATES History Pun Chimera P0108

The method we know as Socratic
Was invented in Socrates' Attic.
It combines a pretense
Of naive innocence
With questions sly and dramatic.

52816 PHILOS - SOCRATES Laurence Perrine P9211

Old Socrates made an impression
With debate and sagacious expression.
He did not corrupt youth,
While he searched for the truth.
It was the world's oldest bull session.

52817 PHILOS - SOCRATES Al Willis TP9802

And then they heard Socrates cry,
"This hemlock tastes too much like lye.
Why can't it be

They say Socrates knew quite a bit
And was finally jailed for his wit.
But that myth's for the birds.

52819 PHILOS - SOCRATES Don Moore P9401

Said Socrates, keeping his poise,
"Tell Xanthippe, I've done with her noise.

52820 PHILOS - SOCRATES John Ciardi

Despite all that Socrates noise
And the trial tale that Plato employs,
He corrupted the youth,
Not by telling the truth,
But chiefly by buggering boys.

52821 PHILOS - SOCRATES A. N. Wilkins P8909

It seems Socrates made people weary
With his fondness for quibbling and query.
After asking "What's virtue?"
Step by step, he'd discourage you,
By refuting your favorite theory.

52822 PHILOS - SOCRATES Lim Hist of Philos P9309

Since negation apparently thrilled him,
As a nihilist many had billed him.
"By so questioning truth,
You've corrupted our youth!"
They then passed the hemlock that killed him.

52826 PHILOS - SOCRATES Al Willis P9710

Not the fate that befalls his pudendum.

52832 PHILOS - ZSERIES Lim Hist of Philos P9305

As for doctrines this thinker brought forward,
In their day, they were hardly ignored.
But although it's no crime

If I did so, I'm sure you'd be bored.

52833 PHILOS - ZSERIES Lim Hist of Philos P9305

Not too far from Miletus by birth,

52834 PHILOS - ZSERIES Lim Hist of Philos P9503

Not just four now, but ever so many!--
Thus the man from the town of Clazomenae.
And no portions you find
Lacks for some of each kind:
Want some gold? Well, there's some in each penny!

52835 PHILOS - ZSERIES Lim Hist of Philos P9503

Thus let's not--to give pause for a minute--
How his thought has a flaw to begin it:
Each natural item
Splits ad infinitum.
So he thought each has everything in it.

52836 PHILOS - ZSERIES Lim Hist of Philos P9503

Anaxagoras then, had supposed
What things "are" is just what they are most.
Would you call a thing such?
It depends on how much.
(Otherwise, your whole meal's in your toast!)

52837 PHILOS - ZSERIES Lim Hist of Philos P9503

To be fair, though, he'd also maintain,
Not all being is quite this mundane.
For who'd dare be so blind
As to think Cosmic Mind
Could exist on so tawdry a plane?!

52838 PHILOS - ZSERIES Lim Hist of Philos P9503

So far as we know this man textually,
Cosmic Mind does its work intellectually.
He found Sicily's mystic
Too physicalistic,
When he viewed it as functionally sexually!

52839 PHILOS - ZSERIES Lim Hist of Philos P9503

To this thinker, were water ubiquitous,
Cosmic law would be wholly iniquitous.
Whether hotter or cooler,
If water's the ruler,
There'd be nowhere that isn't where liquid is.

52840 PHILOS - ZSERIES Lim Hist of Philos P9410

Unless cosmic injustice is gross,
There's a source from which everything flows.
So it's not only prior
To earth, wind, and fire,
But more basic than pure H2O is!

52841 PHILOS - ZSERIES Lim Hist of Philos P9410

Well what's that, I might ask, if not air?
(After all, as you'll grant, it's quite bare!)
And what doesn't seem airy?
That's just how it would vary
When it's made either denser or rare.

52842 PHILOS - ZSERIES Lim Hist of Philos P9410

So the Water that Thales as bound to:
What in fact does it really amount to?
It's just air we decree,
But of different degree.
For that's all in the end it boils down to.

52843 PHILOS - ZSERIES Lim Hist of Philos P9410

Water, Air, or whatever the rage is--
Here's a truth that's survived through the ages:
Don't just ask "What's it made of!"
But become quantitative,
And attack it with rulers and guages.

52844 PHILOS - ZSERIES Lim Hist of Philos P9410

On the world-view these thinkers acknowledged,
All internal distinction abolished.
Throughout the world's areas,
Only two thing are various:
A thing's size, and how smoothly it's polished.

52845 PHILOS - ZSERIES Lim Hist of Philos P9504

What are "things" then?--the Atomists quiz you.
There no question more suited to busy you!
Well, to answer the riddle:
They're all hard and quite little.
And whirling so fast it would dizzy you.

52846 PHILOS - ZSERIES Lim Hist of Philos P9504

For the Atomists--should we go back to 'm--
There's just 'atoms' surrounded by vacuum.
What they're made of, you query us?
That remains quite mysterious:
They alone are what seemed to be fact to 'm.

52847 PHILOS - ZSERIES Lim Hist of Philos P9504

Thus the Atomist's favorite theme:
Things are never the same as they seem.
Be they smooth or more spiny,
Since they're all very tiny,
Human eyes aren't permitted to see 'm.

52848 PHILOS - ZSERIES Lim Hist of Philos P9504

As for "fact", when our senses inform us,
The distortion's no less than enormous.
For what's seen's (per this wisdom)
Just our own nervous system,
After hordes of those little things storm us.

52849 PHILOS - ZSERIES Lim Hist of Philos P9504

A mystical poet from Sicily,
He gave science romantic simplicity:
Earth, air, fire, and water
Formed his natural order.
Love and Hate kept them moving unceasingly.

52850 PHILOS - ZSERIES Lim Hist of Philos P9502

So (dispensing with hollow amenities),
There's some error espoused by Parmenides.
Though our basis is static,
Still it's not Eleatic.
For it moves to form countless identities.

52851 PHILOS - ZSERIES Lim Hist of Philos P9502

Though their action's in general concommitant,
Cosmic cycles have one force that's dominant.
Through pure Hate, natural articles
Tend to burst into particles.
Through pure Love, general merger is prominent.

52852 PHILOS - ZSERIES Lim Hist of Philos P9502

Time alone, though, gives grounds to maintain
Whether Loving or Hate's on the wane.
Are we heading toward fusion
Or complete dissolution?
Never mind, it'll all come again.

52853 PHILOS - ZSERIES Lim Hist of Philos P9502

Were we awed by what struck Heraclitus,
We'd have movement and flux to excite us.
Life's a stream not stepped twice in,
Is a thought that's enticing',
Just like "Fish in it never twice bite us!"

52854 PHILOS - ZSERIES Lim Hist of Philos P9412

Wherever we're stationed or quartered,
We can see that the world is well-ordered.
But the form one admires
Is much like a fire's.
That strike something more evely bordered

52855 PHILOS - ZSERIES Lim Hist of Philos P9412

Thus our logic may lack the perfectitude
That Pythagoras proffered as rectitude.
But at least I"m not lowly,
Eating past'a fagioli,
Nor are sexual stigmas connected to it.

52856 PHILOS - ZSERIES Lim Hist of Philos P9412

What is truth? queried Pilate in jest.
Is it one, say, North, South, East and West?
Now in answer to Pontius,
William James makes us conscious
It's whatever works out for the best.

52857 PHILOS - ZSERIES Lim Hist of Philos P9405

Some say knowledge is finally perfected
When our thoughts and "the facts" are connected.
But what's fact to this faction
But some thought's satisfaction?
If it's more, after all, who'd detect it?

52858 PHILOS - ZSERIES Lim Hist of Philos P9405

Still, if pragmatist's ways are victorious,
Don't suppose that mere dreaming's made glorious.
Lacking practical differences,
Any thinker's bald inferences
Would at most just comfirm what a bore he is!

52859 PHILOS - ZSERIES Lim Hist of Philos P9405

Thus this theory, assuming you buy it,
Says you make a thought true as you try it.
So don't live like a hermit:
Got a thought?--Then confirm it!
There's no truth in ideas that stay quiet.

52860 PHILOS - ZSERIES Lim Hist of Philos P9405

Is there God, or a Heavenly firmament?
Are there values in life that stay permanent?
There's just one sure criterion
To base any such theory on:
How's one's life to be changed by affirmin' it?

52861 PHILOS - ZSERIES Lim Hist of Philos P9405

Whether science or mystical cult,
Here's a truth, then, as pragmatists cull it.
Don't prejudge--all that gets you is
The name Impetuous.
Simply try it, and check the result!

52862 PHILOS - ZSERIES Lim Hist of Philos P9405

To a state (how appalling!)
Even lower than anthropomorphic!

52875 PHILOS - ZSERIES Lim Hist of Philos P9411

To insure such a fate's not eventual,
Don't give in (all that much) to what's sensual.
If you'd rather not worry,
Then it's reason you'll curry,
Or at least if you have any sense you will!

52876 PHILOS - ZSERIES Lim Hist of Philos P9411

It's pure reason alone that can glean
The proportions that shape the world-scene.
Only that's what can raise us
To share in God's graces.
(If we don't, by the way, eat a bean!)

52877 PHILOS - ZSERIES Lim Hist of Philos P9411

Yes, one part of this deal (should you buy it)
Is taboo touching sex and our diet.
Why no beans? No one knows.
But the point, I suppose,
Is to help keep our lowly part quiet.

52878 PHILOS - ZSERIES Lim Hist of Philos P9411

What is Nature? or Truth? Who can probe them?
And Philosophers? (Once we disrobe them!)
Since their skill's just persuation,
Why not skip the evasion,
And admit that's the name of our Program?!

52879 PHILOS - ZSERIES Lim Hist of Philos P9505

Now while sophist meant "wise" at the time--
Who says wisdoms a gift that's divine?
So they charged to purvey it!
That's their right; who'd gainsay it?
(And who'd doubt, it's at least worth a dime.)

52880 PHILOS - ZSERIES Lim Hist of Philos P9505

On the other hand, skipping pretensions,
This new wisdom's mere grasp of conventions:
What persuades an Athenian
Might just strike an Armenian
As merely "sophist" inventions!

52881 PHILOS - ZSERIES Lim Hist of Philos P9505

So the Sophists made some people nervous.
Nonetheless, they provided a service.
For though non-metaphysical,
They at least became quizical
About values that lie on our surface.

52882 PHILOS - ZSERIES Lim Hist of Philos P9505

In the sermons of Bishop Augustine,
There's a stance that some say is disgustin'.
For on this, his terms,
We're worthless as worms,
Without help from the God that we trust in.

52883 PHILOS - ZSERIES Lim Hist of Philos P9303

Were we left to our ouwn poor devices,
We'd all wallow in vermin and vices.
Only Heavenly Grace
Sheds light in our face,
And first gives us an inkling what nice is.

52884 PHILOS - ZSERIES Lim Hist of Philos P9303

Though it might get some humanists miffed,
I'd be helpless without such a gift.
Born with Sin that's Original,
I'd be trapped in my pigeon-hole,
Without wings that give power to lift.

52885 PHILOS - ZSERIES Lim Hist of Philos P9303

And what's more--here's how weak our acumen is:
Nothing's known unless God makes it luminous.
The most trivial verity
Calls for graces and charity
That could only derive from what's numinous.

52886 PHILOS - ZSERIES Lim Hist of Philos P9303

(Incidentally, since numbers appease 'em,
Polytheists might share in this theism:
When Augustine's the boss,
Only one god can awe us,
But this one's, at the same time, a threesome!

52887 PHILOS - ZSERIES Lim Hist of Philos P9303

On the view that he clung to with brio,
God's a solo, but also a trio.
And ideas, he opined,
Are all thoughts in his mind.
(So he's also Platonic--though "neo-".)

52888 PHILOS - ZSERIES Lim Hist of Philos P9303

So from A, B, and C, down to Zeta,
If it's good, just say "Thank you Creator!"
And try hard--as you might--
To use all his gifts right,
So you also can say "See you later!"

52889 PHILOS - ZSERIES Lim Hist of Philos P9303

In the days that were still pre-Socratic,
Abstract thought was a trifle erratic.
So let's try not to sneer,
When from Thales we hear,
That all things are at bottom, aquatic.

52890 PHILOS - ZSERIES Lim Hist of Philos P9410

Thales theory, to quickly review it,
Is that everying's made from a fluid.
How it's done, he'd not venture,
Though he'd say, facing censure:
Don't forget steam and ice somehow do it.

52891 PHILOS - ZSERIES Lim Hist of Philos P9410

So three cheers for this man from Miletus,
And the view (though all wet) that he'd feed us.
You might say, "What a jerk he is!"
But his town now where Turkey is,
Spawned the first abstract thinkers that greet us.

52892 PHILOS - ZSERIES Lim Hist of Philos P9410

With a strange mathematical itch,
Strolled old Thales, the night black as pitch,
And while working a rum
Astronomical sum,
Fell tip over ass in the ditch.

If you get a letter --
To open it better
Make sure that the kettle is hot.

53000 PHYSICS - HEAT/COLD Irving Superior P9707

To his colleague, James said, "I've a thought.
Tell me please--do you like it or not?
Let's relate working force
To the strength of the horse!"
But his friend, unimpressed, said, "So, Watt."

53001 PHYSICS - HEAT/COLD William N. Nesbit P9707

A Yukon Professor quite quizzical
Liked studying properties physical.
He was very bold;
The weather was cold.
When he pissed, all he got was a whizzicle.

53002 PHYSICS - HEAT/COLD Phillip Devicci

A young physicist, surnamed deMurk,
Had tough duties he never would shirk.
His research, near to zero,
Almost made him a hero,
But he never could warm to his work.

53003 PHYSICS - HEAT/COLD Stanley Bashkin

Watt's dream was the cream of steam engines.
Instead we get trains with a vengence.
A lot of hot air,
And 'Travelers Fare',
Was this his invention's intentions?

53004 PHYSICS - HEAT/COLD Bill Greenwell

Wee Jamie, a canny young Scot,
Observed, when the kettle was hot,
That the steam raised the lid,
And it's thanks to this kid
That you and I know Watt's watt.

53005 PHYSICS - HEAT/COLD Joyce Johnson

Below zero, coversion's a breeze.
From the Fahrenheit scale

Show an equal amount of hard freeze!

53006 PHYSICS - HEAT/COLD Prof M-G TP9901

Up the ladder went Celsius in fright,
And he shook in great fear at his plight;
For the more he went higher,
The more he'd perspire --
He did not very well fare in height.

Men vary in rates they acquire
New thoughts to fulfill their desire.
By exertion of wit
Some men, atoms have split,
While in Watts, some have learned about fire.

The scientist, Wernher von Keating,
Told how to save fuel at a meeting.
To get gas we must leach
A political speech,
And consume it for cooking and heating.

53009 PHYSICS - HEAT/COLD Albin Chaplin 3024 P9708

From Centigrade to Fahrenheit--
I never seem to get it right.
And now a plus,
There's Celsius.
So which hot time will I have tonight?

53010 PHYSICS - HEAT/COLD Irving Superior P9707

No BREAK EVEN to bring you much fame.
It is THERMODYNAMICS,

For he CANNOT GET OUT OF THE GAME.

53011 PHYSICS - HEAT/COLD Al Chaplin P9203

A young engineer from Capri
Thought thermodynamics pure glee.
From Maxwell to Joule
Their works, as a rule,
Moved him perpetually.

53012 PHYSICS - HEAT/COLD J Simpson

I've used all my strength,
Gone to such a great length,
Yet all I've achieved is a mess.

53013 PHYSICS - HEAT/COLD Nawahl

A physicist friend never ceases
To tell me that things fall to pieces.
You can't fix a border
'Round states of disorder,
For entropy ever increases.

53014 PHYSICS - HEAT/COLD Tiddy Ogg

Yes, entropy sure is a fox,
Even leading to Gibb's Paradox.
For the universe, however,
Does it change, no, not ever.
It stays constant like we're in a box.

My request may seem a bit dotty,
And my knowledge of physics is spotty;
But it's just been reported,
Photons teleported.

53016 PHYSICS - LIGHT SPEED Limerick Savant

There once was a woman named Kerr,
Who could travel much faster than her.
In the course of a day,
In a relative way,
She'd become the most absolute blur.

53017 PHYSICS - LIGHT SPEED Anon

Relativity tells us that light
Has a speed firmly fixed. That's all right
From dawn until evening,
But who is believing
That the law can apply in the night.

53018 PHYSICS - LIGHT SPEED Kirk Miller

There was a young lady named Bright,
Who could fuck much faster than light.
She screwed one day,
In a relative way,
And she came on the previous night.

53019 PHYSICS - LIGHT SPEED A. Reginald Buller

To her friends, that Miss Bright use to chatter,
"I have learned something new about matter,
My speed was so great
That is increased my weight;
Yet I failed to become any fatter."

53020 PHYSICS - LIGHT SPEED A. H. Buller

We've heard of that fellow called Bright,
And his trip on that fabulous night.
But his increasing mass
Would have soon proved so vast,
He'd have been a most 'singular' sight!

53021 PHYSICS - LIGHT SPEED

On returning she seemed rather small.
"I seem to have shrunk,"
She said to her Unk.
"For awhile I was nothing at all!"

Bright's boyfriend was tall, dark and strong,
And what's better, his manhood was long.
But after the trip
When she asked him to strip,
They found he'd a foreshortened dong!

53023 PHYSICS - LIGHT SPEED Neal Wilgus P8211

It speeds at such rate
To your gut from your plate,
It's excreted the previous day.

53024 PHYSICS - LIGHT SPEED Jerry Missel

A Chinese inventor named Wu
Climbed out of a window and flew.
At the peak of his flight,
He went faster than light,

53025 PHYSICS - LIGHT SPEED   Harald S. Green   P8510

A fencing instructor named Fisk,
In sex was terribly brisk.
So fast was his action,
The Fitzgerald contraction,
Foreshortened his prick to a disk.

53026 PHYSICS - LIGHT SPEED   Tony Boucher G2636 L1204

Now Fisk and his disk had a date
And he hoped that his girlfriend would mate.
But they both knew the risk
For with foreplay so brisk,
The disk might just slide off the plate.

53027 PHYSICS - LIGHT SPEED   Neal Wilgus   P8211

Relativistic limericks have the attraction
Of being shrunk by a Lorentz contraction.
But for readers unwary,
The results may be scary,
When they see just a fraction...   (in action. - McW)

53028 PHYSICS - LIGHT SPEED   David Morin et al

Faster than light, then we'll know
That Einstein is right,
If it flies out of sight
And lands many eons ago.

53030 PHYSICS - LIGHT SPEED   PeterW

If one tries to fly faster than C,
Then M will be big as can be.
To accelerate through
A constant so true,
Would require way too much energy.

53031 PHYSICS - LIGHT SPEED

"People can travel," said Albert Einstein,
The speed of light in a gadget of mine.
When my in-laws go fast,
Back into the past,
Relatively speaking, they're not mine.

53032 PHYSICS - LIGHT SPEED   Kirk Miller

There once was a young man named Lee,
Charged with running a red light in Philly.
"But your honor, 'twas green,
At least it had been;
I was moving at .2 times c."

53033 PHYSICS - LIGHT SPEED   A M Gabrys

Albert Einstein was driving one night
When he reached a speed faster than light.
Then he took a quick peek
In his mirror, and "EEK!" --
For his headlights weren't dipped, but on bright.

53034 PHYSICS - LIGHT SPEED   Prof M-G

What did Einstein, while driving one night
At a speed so much faster than light,
In his mirror observe
That near caused him to swerve?
His very own headlights, on bright!

53035 PHYSICS - LIGHT SPEED Prof M-G

Such antics can lead to a crime
If m c squared equal a prime.
A mathematical converson

Here's proof of it, ladies and gents:
Those scientist folks are so dense,
That no speeds can be reckoned
In cubits per second,
And that cost us each fifty cents.

53063 PHYSICS - MECHANICS

That depends, to some minor extent,
On the census. Our nation's intent
Is: Spend twenty-four bucks

And get within seven percent.

For that which must rise must soon fall;
A principle applying to all.
That apples plus distance
Give rise to resistance,
Because, badly beaned, you will crawl.

53273 PHYSICS - PEOPLE - NEWTON Matthew Montchalin

But note that the opposite's true,
That returning the apple that grew
To the branch that had lost it,
Depends not on who tossed it,
But on the tree and the distance it flew.

53274 PHYSICS - PEOPLE - NEWTON Matthew Montchalin

And branches not low, but quite high,
Make distances hard to defy.
But those that are low,

But it's still in the bank
Of sand where it sank,
And it still repays interest with pleasure.

53377 PIRATES AND CUTTHROATS Laurence Perrine P8804

The pirate Kidd buried his treasure
Somewhere in this acre (by measure),
And if I persevere
And dig long enough here,
I'll find it -- no kidding -- with pleasure.

53378 PIRATES AND CUTTHROATS Laurence Perrine P8804

First, Captain Kidd cried, "All aboard!"
Then gave his captives, all, a board,
Except the young females.
He knew once under sails,
His crew would soon scream, "All are boared!"

53379 PIRATES AND CUTTHROATS Irving Superior P8804

The captives Kidd cried, "All aboard."
Then later gave them all a board.
At sea what Kidd would do
To help morale, his crew --
An "overboard when all are bored.

53380 PIRATES AND CUTTHROATS Irving Superior P8511

Captain Kidd told his crew he forbid
Two nicknames he'd always kept hid --
Oscar and Ulysses --
Were namesakes of sissies
And worse to be tagged O. U. Kidd.

53381 PIRATES AND CUTTHROATS Bob Giandomenico P8804

On all pirate vessels the crews
Have a powerful craving for booze.
It is their holy water
For blessing or slaughter,
And they drink it from tankard or cruse.
(cruse - a small vessel for holding liquid)
53382 PIRATES AND CUTTHROATS Laurence Perrine P8804

The pirate can't stand his damn parrot --
The fool thing got drunk on some claret.
Stuffed it down his pants
Where it started to dance.
It surely does tickle his ferret!

53383 PIRATES AND CUTTHROATS Marlene Lewis

Ashore, if not locked up in prison,
Pirates tended to be quite bedizen.
In spectacular ways
They made up for dull days
When excitement and pleasure were mizzen.
(bedizen - to dress gaudily and vulgarly)
53384 PIRATES AND CUTTHROATS Ann Gasser P8804

There was an old pirate named Charlie
Who tooled about on a Harley.
He was tough as ten men
And meaner than sin,
And even his parrot was snarly.

53385 PIRATES AND CUTTHROATS Cyber Geezer

Two pirate captain weirdos,
Fatima and Pissgums, were foes.
Her lesbian band
From cook to deckhand,
USEe looking to bring Piss to blows.

53386 PIRATES AND CUTTHROATS H WHELCHEL

Pissgums drank grog with a fizz,
And sometimes a shot of ripe jizz.
"Mates, if you're hung,
Come rinse off my tongue!"
He'd shout 'fore his crew took a whiz.

53387 PIRATES AND CUTTHROATS H WHELCHEL

Captain Fatima, the dyke,
Tried a preemptive first strike.
She grappled his ship;
He grappled her nip;
She nailed down his crank with a pike.

53388 PIRATES AND CUTTHROATS H WHELCHEL

A bloody and fierce rendezvous,
The dykes and the perverts hove-to.
Their cutlasses strew
Small chunks of each crew,
Some colored with blood and tattoo.

53389 PIRATES AND CUTTHROATS H WHELCHEL

The helmsman got rations of grief
When dykes got ahold of his beef.
He screamed for his mummy
And emptied his tummy,
And steered his way onto a reef.

53390 PIRATES AND CUTTHROATS H Whelchel

Piss bit Fatima's right lip --
She bit his choad on the tip.
He got a good rise,
But to their demise,
Both soon went down with the ship.

53391 PIRATES AND CUTTHROATS H WHELCHEL

When the privateer Drake long ago
Caught a Spaniard, he'd say to him, "Show
Where it says in the Bible
That a Christian is liable
To having to kiss the Pope's toe."

53392 PIRATES AND CUTTHROATS Don Moore P9312

Those pirates were all hale and hearty,
And they throw one hell of a party.
They stay drunk for a week,
And the havoc they wreak,
Would offend a fine lass like our Marty.

53393 PIRATES AND CUTTHROATS Jeanie

But I took it all in my stride,
And partied till I was glassy-eyed.
Then a one-legged chap
Took a shit in my lap,
And that made me finally decide.

53394 PIRATES AND CUTTHROATS Jeanie

A pirate relentless and cold,
Captain Singleton, finally told
Defoe of his strife
And earned more from his life
Than all of the loot that he'd sold.

53395 PIRATES AND CUTTHROATS A. N. Wilkins P8804

Henry Morgan had more than a measure
Of perversity, and at his leisure
Made maps to his humor
To encourage the rumor
That he'd left buried loot and rich treasure.

53396 PIRATES AND CUTTHROATS A. N. Wilkins P8804

A tubercular pirate named Duncan
Had a body all shriveled and shrunken.
His wife called him Treasure
Though not from his measure.
'Twas because of his chest which was sunken.

53397 PIRATES AND CUTTHROATS Bob Giandomenico P8804

The seagull did shit, on the fly,
Right into the pirate's left eye.
Now sadly, alas,
That eye 's made of glass...
Cause he gave his new hook a try.

53398 PIRATES AND CUTTHROATS

Ambidextrous they called Jean Laffite.
In town the whores thought it a treat
When he was in port.
On the high seas, his sport
Was with handsome young tars of the fleet.

53399 PIRATES AND CUTTHROATS A. N. Wilkins P8804

"As for crime," said the pirate, "I've done it,
And although the best people shun it,
There's only one way
To make sure it won't pay.
Just let any government run it."

53400 PIRATES AND CUTTHROATS A. N. Wilkins P8804

"It was here! Do you dig me? Right here
Kidd buried his treasure that year.
His diggers he shot;
The spot Kidd forgot.
There was no other buccaneer near!

53401 PIRATES AND CUTTHROATS Lauarence Perrine P8804

Beware of that pirate, Llewellyn!
He's gay and I've heard that old felon
Is seeking small buoys
For sexual toys:
He's probing the 'straights' of Magellan!

53402 PIRATES AND CUTTHROATS

If I get a few moments alone,
And Ermintrude gets off my bone,
I'll then find the time,
To write down the rhymes,
Of that evil she-pirate, Long Joan.

53403 PIRATES AND CUTTHROATS

If Long John met a wench, he would dodge her,
And though not an effeminate codger,
He would tell no sly fib
As to cut of his jib,
His sail flapped for young Jolly Roger.

53404 PIRATES AND CUTTHROATS Ann Gasser P8804

When Long John Silver saw Blind Pugh,
His first reaction was "Pooh-pooh."
When Pugh the "black spot" gave,
Long John became less brave
And in his long johns John went "poo."

53405 PIRATES AND CUTTHROATS Irving Superior P8804

All pirates lacked women to carol,
But the sport that they played was nonpareil;
For the barrel's bung hole
Did suffice to console --
There was always a man in the barrel.

53406 PIRATES AND CUTTHROATS Al Chaplin P8804

Let R.L.S. once show us where
His Long John Silver combed his hair
Or rinsed his hose
Or washed his clothes
Or Long John changed his underwear.

53407 PIRATES AND CUTTHROATS Irving Superior P8804

When business was slow, each poor buccaneer
His trophies would sell for 'one buck an ear'.
The BUCCANEER name
Perverted became
When women would offer them one fuccaneer.

53408 PIRATES AND CUTTHROATS Irving Superior P8804

Well shiver me timbers and may
The eight winds come blow me away,
And rattle my skull
And wreck my old hull,
And sink me inside of the bay.

53409 PIRATES AND CUTTHROATS Matthew Montchalin

Now really, expressions like that
Are rather antique and "old hat",
But not quite so shocking
As the way you were talking
Of someone who chews more than fat.

53410 PIRATES AND CUTTHROATS Matthew Montchalin

The corniest folks of Penzance
Were lead such a song and a dance
When Sullivan's Gilbert
Was nuts like a filbert,
Creating a pirates' romance.

53411 PIRATES AND CUTTHROATS Bill Backe-Hansen P8804

The Pirates of Penzance no more
Have cannons on stage as before.
Last week they went BANG.
(Their captain we'll hang)
And sank H.M.S Pinafore.

53412 PIRATES AND CUTTHROATS Irving Superior P8804

The pirate whom most I bemoan
Is he with dull skull and cross bone,
Who tries to win fame
By printing his name
Over words can be shown, are my own.

53413 PIRATES AND CUTTHROATS Laurence Perrine P8804

The pirate was dressed all in black.
The lady was taken aback.
His cock was so large;
It gave her a charge.
She begged him to give her the rack.

53414 PIRATES AND CUTTHROATS Bonnie

The pirate tied her hand and leg;
Widespread on the rack she did beg.
Please give me some rum
And I'll make you come;
I blow like a lit powder keg.

53415 PIRATES AND CUTTHROATS Bonnie

The captives of Kidd were first screwed.
In turn, one by one, each was crewed.
When the gang bang was done,
Overboard one by one,
With many exclaiming, "That's crude."

53416 PIRATES AND CUTTHROATS Irving Superior P8804

Such evil did Robinson's crew sow!
A pirate's flag Robinson's crew sew,
Then overboard throw
With no place to go...
Did Satan make Robinson's crew so?

53417 PIRATES AND CUTTHROATS Irving Superior P9112

A salty old pirate named Hank
Decided to play a mean prank.
So he put a dead snail
In the ship captain's ale,
And the captain yelled, "Roll out the plank."

53418 PIRATES AND CUTTHROATS Bob Birch P0302

The infamous pirate, Steve Bonnet,
From his captains chair bellowed, "Doggonit!
I've sat on my cutlass
Now I'm nearly buttless,
And it pains me to put weight upon it."

53419 PIRATES AND CUTTHROATS Bob Giandomenico P8804

Captain Dick was a man of great sin,
Sailed the seas with an evil grin,
Sadistic and cruel,
He'd replaced his limp tool
With a cast iron belaying pin.

53420 PIRATES AND CUTTHROATS Ann Gasser P8804

The pirates of old were no fools.
When the crew captured prisoners, the rules
Were that they must hunt
In each woman's cunt,
In case she was hiding rich jewels.

53421 PIRATES AND CUTTHROATS A. N. Wilkins P8804

The sight that Blind Pugh hasn't got
Doesn't slow him a hell of a lot.
He comes and he goes
In his old ragged clothes,
With his seeing eye canine, Black Spot.

53422 PIRATES AND CUTTHROATS Arthur Deex P8804

A dashing young pirate had caught a
Spanish princess like he oughta.
Imagine his fright
When he came in sight
Of the vengeance bound Spanish Armada.

53423 PIRATES AND CUTTHROATS

Pirates lurking off headland and capes,
Captured treasure and carried out rapes
Of their innocent prey.
Their successors today
Find more profit in records and tapes.

53424 PIRATES AND CUTTHROATS A. N. Wilkins P8804

I just can't resist a swashbuckle;
It gives me a thrill and a chuckle.
Stabbing and swishing
Get me to wishing
That under a sword I may truckle.

53425 PIRATES AND CUTTHROATS Joie de Vivre

They were picturesque knaves but they stank --
Those pirates whose vessels we sank.
From captain to cook,
Unless I'm mistook,
They were just about equally rank.

53426 PIRATES AND CUTTHROATS Laurence Perrine P8804

For the poor man who steals but a kettle,
The hangman his fate will soon settle.
But a pirate so bold,
Steals a shipload of gold,
And he's honored and given a medal.

53427 PIRATES AND CUTTHROATS Albin Chaplin 3024-2640

A hare-lipped old pirate named Matt
Said, "What do you know about that.
I've been searching for years
For my lost buccaneers,
And they're here under my buckin' hat."

53428 PIRATES AND CUTTHROATS Bob Giandomenico P8804

A pirate came under the scrutiny
Of his chief on suspicion of mutiny.
This scum was unwilling
To kill for a shilling,
And preached it was sinful to loot any.

53429 PIRATES AND CUTTHROATS Laurence Perrine P8804

A pirate who hailed from Nertskin
Became so exceedingly thin,
That while cleaning his gun,
When the day's work was done,
He looked down the bore and fell in.

53430 PIRATES AND CUTTHROATS Anon

The other side most insincere
Succored pirate and base buccaneer.
What they did was awful
While we, always lawful,
Commissioned our own privateer.

53431 PIRATES AND CUTTHROATS Arthur Deex P8804

Captain Kidd, says a scholar who delves
Into history's dank moldy shelves,
A Godfearing man
Carried out the Lord's plan:
"God helps those who," he said, "help themselves."

53432 PIRATES AND CUTTHROATS A. N. Wilkins P8804

There once was a pirate whose leg
Was made from the cork of a keg.
When he swam in the sea,
He'd upend at the knee
And scrape barnacles off of the skeg.

53433 PIRATES AND CUTTHROATS Tillmanator

A peg-legged captain, named Hood;
Prosthesis adrift, that's not good.
His parrot kvetched,
"S'pose you'd like that fetched?"
Said captain, "Aye aye I shore wood"

53434 PIRATES AND CUTTHROATS

Shipwrecked First Mate infrequently laughed
When with Captain he bobbed on a raft.
Sharks made him afraid
And his boss, a gay blade,
Kept him worried both fore and aft.

53435 PIRATES AND CUTTHROATS Ann Gasser P8804

When we see on TV, devastations,
The Red Cross solicits donations --
But out of our cash,
A large chunk is slashed,
Never reaching the pain and starvation.

Colonel North was a clever Marine.
He was Reagan's point man on the scene.
He peddled the guns,
Diverted the funds,
But came through the ordeal quite clean.

53437 POLITICS - BUREAUS Gifford Wherry

Colonel North's secretary, Fawn Hall,
Was a "Looker with lots on the ball."
She shredded those papers
And pulled other capers,

You contributed to a great flood;
Excess blood bags were dripped

"I promise to lower your taxes!",
The candidate poetically waxes,
"I'll do that for you,

But once elected, all he does is relaxes.

53444 POLITICS - CANDIDATES Pamela Cohen

"Don't be silly!" I cry in dismay,
"You know that it can't be this way!

54691 POLITICS - THEORY - PARTIES   Allen Wolverton

But those Commies have reason to factor
That sex rationed should be our transactor.
They will not put a stop

It's their major fixation,
And it shows that they are very thick.

54705 POLITICS - THEORY - PARTIES   CSW

The women, Australian, take pride
In being a DOWN UNDER bride.
But when passions grow,
UP OVER they go
So DOWN UNDER men they can ride.

55071 POSITIONS - ASTRIDE Irving Superior P8611

When on top, she can go like a train.
And this female express
Would outrun even Bess,
If I don't let the train take the strain.

55078 POSITIONS - ASTRIDE Tiddy Ogg

Charmaine often makes fellows wait,
(Or so report many a date,)
She'll bounce on their dong,
But takes far too long,
Like trains, man, she often comes late.

55079 POSITIONS - ASTRIDE Tiddy Ogg

I'd still take Charmaine over Shirley,
Who only comes once and too early.

From on top she gets off,
So quick I'm left loaded and surly.

Your attack from the back's
Just scratching my crack,

55266 POSITIONS - REARED - SERIES   John Miller

I hope you'll not mind if I'm blunt,
But since it's her asshole you punt
Your attack from the back
Is just scratching her crack,
So give her a poke up the cunt.

55267 POSITIONS - REARED - SERIES

If advice I were fain to dispense,
'Twere better 'twas making some sense.
Instead of the focus
On her crack or her tokus,
It should mention her clitty laments.

55268 POSITIONS - REARED - SERIES   Allen Wolverton

Boys, a girl on all fours is a treat;

You can park on her rear
A cold six pack of beer,
When your good old gal comes into heat.

55269 POSITIONS - REARED - SERIES   Allen Wolverton

If your fetish's a gal on all fours,
You should try humping one out of doors.
In the cold and the heat,

On the bed or the grass of the moors.

55270 POSITIONS - REARED - SERIES   Richard

I'll give you what for from the back
As my slick dick slides in your crack
My hands on your nips

55271 POSITIONS - REARED - SERIES   Archie

Well ladies, this first ride is mine,
So please stand back there in the line.
With that pogo inside,
It's a hell of a ride,
And the ride only cost me a dime!

55272 POSITIONS - REARED - SERIES

How untrue my sweet little pet
I've never charged anything yet
For you to ride on Hop on or slide on
My pogo stick, sticky and wet

55273 POSITIONS - REARED - SERIES

As a lover of sex from behind,
The state of your face I won't mind.
Would you like to have sperm
Rubbed into your perm?
Can I come to your house for a grind?

55274 POSITIONS - REARED - SERIES   Jack

Nothing gets rubbed in my perm,
'Specially not out of your worm.
How do you doodle
With that little noodle?
I've heard that it's not very firm.

55275 POSITIONS - REARED - SERIES Marlene

Past conquests were heard to scream, "Jack!"
When I mounted a rear-end attack.
"Don't get your goo
Near my new hair-do...
Do you know that you're up the wrong crack?..."

55276 POSITIONS - REARED - SERIES Jack

So I'd wriggle an inch down their furrow,
Till in the right hole I would burrow.
And ride them some more
Until they were sore.
I may not be huge, but I thorough.

55277 POSITIONS - REARED - SERIES Jack

Oh dear, did I reject the wrong Jack?
You're on the other side of the track?
Even so I request
A more civil behest
Than "C'mon baby, jump in the sack!"

55278 POSITIONS - REARED - SERIES Marilyn

You cannot come here for a grind.
What's required is much more refined.
A 'canoodle' or 'pet'
Is more likely to get
You into myself from behind.

55279 POSITIONS - REARED - SERIES Marilyn

Losing all sense of control,
On the bed we tumble and roll.
Pleasuring each other,
Trying to smother,
The fire on this hot bed of coals.

55280 POSITIONS - REARED - SERIES

You've smothered me with sweet kisses
And answered all of my wishes.
My flame for you grows
And so does my hose,
At the thought of that pussy, delicious.

55281 POSITIONS - REARED - SERIES

Then put me on my two knees.
(Don't make me beg and say please.)
A little doggie style,
Sure makes me smile,
I see that grin, you agree.

55282 POSITIONS - REARED - SERIES

When you get in that position
Reminds me of sweet superstition;
That taboo that you
Now ask me to do,
I gladly will, with your permission.

55283 POSITIONS - REARED - SERIES

But when I insert from behind
To give you a doggie-type grind,
It's still the same hole
That gets my long pole;
No anal sex is on my mind.

55284 POSITIONS - REARED - SERIES

I don't mind getting down on all fours,
As long as it's not on the floor.
The rug's my concern;
It causes those burns,
And my knees will get red and sore.

55285 POSITIONS - REARED - SERIES

A secret I've learned from the past,
That keeps rug burns from happening fast.
Are on sale for sure
At any sports store;
They all sell fine knee pads that last!

55286 POSITIONS - REARED - SERIES

Or maybe a tumbling pad
Could keep burns from getting bad.
We could do gymnastics
Or fuck til we're spastic;
The best sex may yet to be had!

55287 POSITIONS - REARED - SERIES

But I think to stop those turning red,
We'll try something simple instead,
When down on all fours.
So you won't get those sores,
We'll just have to screw in the bed

55288 POSITIONS - REARED - SERIES

My first girl was a terrible grouch,
Which all of my friends will sure vouch.
She was cleaning the oven,
So I tried some lovin',
Then got banished to my lumpy old couch.

55289 POSITIONS - REARED - SERIES   Atticus

Once Helga was muckin' the stalls,
So I on my hands and knees crawls

55290 POSITIONS - REARED - SERIES   Travis Brasell

Well, hard luck old son, and best wishes.
But scullery love is delicious,
When you start to flirt,
And hoist up her skirt,
And boff while she's washing the dishes.

55291 POSITIONS - REARED - SERIES   Tiddy Ogg

I walked up behind my sweet lass,
Just as she was washing a glass.
When I grabbed her caboose,
Bloody Hell did break loose,
Like shoving worms up a wildcat's ass.

55292 POSITIONS - REARED - SERIES   Atticus

"The ceiling needs painting," she said,
While lying face up on the bed;
So changing position

Face down on the bed she then sings,
"This doggie-style screwing sure stings!"
Asked he, "Dick too big?"
Screamed she, "No you pig!

55294 POSITIONS - REARED - SERIES   Travis Brasell

What's normal is not always clear.
Weird sex was something to fear.
Now I'm no mathematician,
But here's my suspicion:
It's directly proportional to beer.

It has little to do with the beer,
For everything's normal in here.

55304 POSITIONS - STANDING Jim Weaver Collection

I can quite categorically state
That the towel bars in washrooms are great.

55501 PREGNANT - MALES Nik Synytskyy

I have to think what to do.
Unmarried dads, a problem, true.
If I knew who was the Mum,
Dad'd get out his gun;
A wedding would take place quite soon.

55502 PREGNANT - MALES Archie

But, trust me, that won't happen here,
Maybe an abortion, I fear.
That's not the answer,
I might get a cancer,
And lose everything I hold dear.

55503 PREGNANT - MALES Archie

Of course, there's adoption, that's hard;
Small kids growing up without Dard.
And I know I'll grieve
When seeing it leave,
And I'd cry if I let down my guard.

55504 PREGNANT - MALES Archie

And girls, I will need your advice,
On handling results of my vice;
To carry to term
Or treat like a germ;
I'm confused and not very nice.

55505 PREGNANT - MALES Archie

So Archie is pregnant, they say.
Has this been confirmed, by the way?
You've had ultrasound
On that nice little mound?
Do you know when is your due day?

55506 PREGNANT - MALES Marlene

If I knew to use pink or blue,
I would knit a bunting for you.
Well, it'd be for the baby
Unless you think, maybe,
That you will be needing one too.

55507 PREGNANT - MALES Marlene

Have you planned the baby's layette?
Know how many diapers to get?
Because you're a man,
The formula plan,
And get baby bottles: one set.

55508 PREGNANT - MALES Marlene

My gosh, there is so much to do.
Does not sound like you have a clue!
Go purchase a crib
And a new baby bib,
And one diaper pail for the loo!

55509 PREGNANT - MALES Marlene

My friend, Marlene, thanks for your help.
In March of next year, I will whelp.
The ultrasound things
Confirmed it is twins.
Having them, I think I will yelp!

55510 PREGNANT - MALES Archie

I have worked out the ova doner --
With Ericka I lost my honor!
With Peter away,
She and I did play.
I then lost a duel aloner.

55511 PREGNANT - MALES Archie

For your knitting help, I thank you,
But you will be knitting for two!
It's a bit of a stink,
But I need some in pink
For her, and for him, some in blue.

55512 PREGNANT - MALES Archie

These diapers (called nappies down here)
Sound grotty and smelly. I fear
Some use of Duct Tape
Could contain the pape,
And might even stop them from wee'r!

55513 PREGNANT - MALES Archie

But with all of the rest of the stuff,
I'm truly confused quite enough.
What size do I get;
Not used to it yet.
Please help me while I'm up the duff.

55514 PREGNANT - MALES Archie

You must think I'm very dumb
(Obviously not doing my sums)
But I haven't a clue
As to who, just who
Can possibly have been the Mum!

55515 PREGNANT - MALES Archie

Well it certainly couldn't be me;
We canoodled just once by the sea
On my trip down-under.
No sexual blunder
Took place. I'll tell y'all for free.

55516 PREGNANT - MALES Joie de Vivre

The next time in Archie's van,
He tried it on. (Typical man!)
"I'll warm up you body
Without a hot-toddy";
The offer was there... but I ran.

55517 PREGNANT - MALES Joie de Vivre

I've checked out the dates and the sums;
I'm no longer naive or just dumb.
The labs did the test;
I know all the rest.
I know who put what in my tum!

55518 PREGNANT - MALES Archie

But isn't it just like a girl,
My privates you just had to twirl!
You had your night's fun,
And now that you're done,
You leave with your dress all aswirl!

55519 PREGNANT - MALES Archie

I fell for your charms so pronounced,
And on to me you did then pounce.
You had your fun lay
And now I must pay.
Don't blame me if I fairly flounce!

55520 PREGNANT - MALES Archie

You're somewhat confused, 'twould appear;
'Twas I, the horned Father of Fear
Who supplied the smegs
To ripen those eggs
Once dormant inside Archies' rear.

55521 PREGNANT - MALES Old Nick

I withdrew from his butt before dawn
And when Archie awoke with a yawn,
The pain causing worry
Was put down to curry
And not to my devilish spawn.

55522 PREGNANT - MALES Old Nick

When Arch takes to his whelping bed
And out pops the first little head,

55792 PRESIDENTS H. Kleidman

It was on the 7th of December,
That Franklin D. took out his member.
He said, like the bard,
"It will be long and hard,
Pearl Harbor has given me something to remember."

55793 PRESIDENTS L1604

"There was one surprise, to be sure,"
F.D.R. said. "I started this tour
Of duty quite sad.
I'd found things as bad
As I had been saying they were."

55794 PRESIDENTS A. N. Wilkins P8912

"The depression will ruin us? Oh, never!"
Declared Roosevelt. "Through my endeavor
You'll just be beset
With a National Debt,
For ever and ever and ever."

55795 PRESIDENTS Vassar W. Smith P9304

Though a Roosevelt fan I was not;
I never really liked him a lot.
But old Franklin R.
Was better by far
Than this miserable bastard we've got.
(Bill Clinton)
55796 PRESIDENTS Popsicle TP9806

The sex of the rex in the White House
Was standing erect as a lighthouse,
And the band grits its teeth
Playing "Hail to the Chief" --
After all, it is such a polite house!
(twenty years before Clinton)
55797 PRESIDENTS Hugh Oliver A032B

That sodden old Ulysses Grant
Once shit-stained the crotch of his pant.
Went south with a negress,
Mistook cunt for egress,
And plundered her, one inch askant.

55798 PRESIDENTS

I promise that I'll not condone
Politics with a bourgeois tone;
From now on you'll see,
You must vote carefully --
The life you save may be your own.

55799 PRESIDENTS Martin Wellborn P8501

When women to vote were just starting,
Passions conquered; good sense was left smarting.
Who'd the ladies elect?
Well, who did you suspect? --
Handsome Warren Gamaliel Harding.

55800 PRESIDENTS Robin K. Willoughby P8411

Said Hoover, "I don't understand 'em.
If they really want jobs, they can land 'em.
If a work-seeking tyke
Has no luck on a bike,
He can double his chance on a tandem."

55801 PRESIDENTS Gerry Hamill

There was a young girl from Vancouver,
Who was raped by President Hoover.
(A two-liner)

55802 PRESIDENTS

There was a young man from Vancouver
Who claimed to have buggered Herb Hoover.
'Tis plain, whether he
Was fucker or fuckee,
'Twas a most impolitical maneuver.

55803 PRESIDENTS G1073

Our President-Elect may say,
"Though George from England broke away
And Abe set the slaves free,
Alas, unlucky me!
I've got the problems today."

55804 PRESIDENTS Irving Superior P9301

Andrew Jackson's wife had 'neath her frock
A pudendum the size of a crock.
When her doctor asked why,
She could only reply,
"It's Old Hickory's dickery, Doc."

55805 PRESIDENTS Bob Giandomenico P8912

James K Polk is most famous for
His false campaign vow, Fifty-four
Forty or fight!
And his work to incite
The Mexican-American War.

55806 PRESIDENTS Election 2000

Thomas Jefferson earned our remembrance
And brought honor in all his descendants,
When he said, pulling lockets
From two of his pockets,
"Look here, I declare, in de pendants..."

55807 PRESIDENTS Larry Hollister

A new sex scandal headlines scream --
Tom fathered many, 'twould seem.
Using his plantation
To further procreation,
Jefferson needs OJ's DNA dream team.

55808 PRESIDENTS Frank Petersohn

The Sage of the famed Monticello
Was known as a tolerant fellow;
But the wenches he mastered
Bred more than one bastard,
For lack of some vaginal jello.

55809 PRESIDENTS Norm Storer P9204

Then Camelot came to us all
But good leaders just had to fall.
Martin, JFK
And Bobby they slay,
Then Nixon and Reagan did pall!

55810 PRESIDENTS

Said one member of this Great Society,
Upon seeing my scar, quite untidy:
"Would they still all be smiles
Had the problem been piles?"
Gave the press a good laugh. Impropriety!

55811 PRESIDENTS Frank Fazed

It's a wide spectrum: lusting in heart,
To monkey-shines with Gary Hart.
But the public is slow
To accept crowning blow,
Jack Kennedy to Clinton imparts.

55812 PRESIDENTS Daniel Ford

We all heard our weak leader say
Its "All the way with LBJ."
We cursed him for that;
The words fell so flat
The sea came and took him away!

55813 PRESIDENTS

The Society of Lyndon B. J.
Did not reach to Watts in L.A.
What on TV was shown,
They could not ever own,
So they took it in their unique way.

55814 PRESIDENTS Albin Chaplin

There was a young fellow named Bronson
Who dressed for a ball in Wisconsin.
From his head, then perforce,
Hung the tail of a horse,
For he went to the party as Johnson.

55815 PRESIDENTS Albin Chaplin

"Though to think," said a fellow named Booth,
"That the President lied, seems uncouth.
Many folks are dismayed
Because they're afraid
That he's actually telling the truth."

55816 PRESIDENTS A. N. Wilkins P8701

How vile! How utterly shocking!
Your mother in verse to be mocking!
You are far too depraved
To ever be saved;
There's a President we should be mocking.

55817 PRESIDENTS John Miller

It was late Forty-one, warm and fair;
The White House veranda was where
FDR with a wink
Said, "I've reason to think
There will soon be a nip in the air."

55818 PRESIDENTS Don Moore

A White House reporter named Fife
Had the wackiest dream of his life.
He saw Nixon smoke dope,
JFK goose the Pope,
And Bill Clinton was fucking his wife!

55819 PRESIDENTS Don Moore

The president steps in the shower,
Where he glories in God-given power.
Since he cannot sing,
He takes hold of his thing,
And he plays with himself by the hour.

55820 PRESIDENTS Albin Chaplin

Now who in American history
Belongs in this long list so blistery?
Our presidents are shit,
The rich roll in it;
So let's leave the question a mystery.

55821 PRESIDENTS G0149

Most of those who led our nation,
Were guilty of abomination.
But now we may judge
The shit from the fudge --
We've got some real-time information.

55822 PRESIDENTS H Whelchel

"My troops," Teddy Roosevelt said,
"Find Cuba sexually dead,
For the whores, whites and blacks,
Will not risk their backs,
By taking Rough Riders to bed."

55823 PRESIDENTS P8205

Teddy Roosevelt's wife always scoffed
At his tool's lack of firmness and loft.
When he trod on some gum,
She said, "Teddy, you bum,
You walk sticky and tote a big soft."

55824 PRESIDENTS Bob Giandomenico P8910

With every Pres to the last,
There's been ammo to use from his past.
Mudslinging gets rougher,
The country may suffer
If we make every Pres an outcast.

55825 PRESIDENTS LadyJ

The private lives of presidents,
Once exclusive to residents
Of the big White House,
Including the spouse,
Have become tabloid precedents.

55826 PRESIDENTS Daniel Ford

They say that ex-President Taft,
When his by a golf gall, once laughed,
And said, "I'm not sore,
But although he called 'Fore'
The place that he hit me was aft."

55827 PRESIDENTS

In bed though Bill Taft had been slick,
As years passed, it became quite a trick.
He'd begun to gain weight
At such a fast rate
That the guy couldn't see his own prick.

55828 PRESIDENTS A.N. Wilkins P8912

A little French Poodle named Leon
Was looking for something to pee on.
With human acumen
He picked Harry Truman,
Upon which we all can agree on.

55829 PRESIDENTS P8202

I'm at this U.N. thing, dear Bess;
What happens is anyone's guess.
And now, drat the luck,
Someone's passed the buck;
That motto has me in a mess.

55830 PRESIDENTS Frank Fazed

To her friends Mrs. Truman said, "Sure,
I dislike Harry's shouting 'Manure!'
But it took me ten years
To teach him, my dears,
Not to say something far more impure!"

55831 PRESIDENTS Vassar Collection P9606

Fourth Estaters in "Chi" Town were fumin',
Screaming out, "Good Lord, this is inhuman!"
And what led to such rage
You ask? That front page
Telling Dewey's defeat of H. Truman.

55832 PRESIDENTS Loren C Fitzhugh

Look, old Dubya's again on his feet
And he's treading his old war-path street.
As he's marching along,
With his threatening schlong;
Course I'm not talking George, I mean Pete. (Peter Wilkins)

55833 PRESIDENTS Ulla

The war-path? Good heavens! No way!
From righteousness rarely I stray;
Though sometimes my bone
Has a mind of its own,
And thus causes me trouser affray.

55834 PRESIDENTS Peter Wilkins

You're as honest as the old 'Merkin Prez;
What's his name. It was Nixon, oh yes.
Like a saint on a plinth,
Like the young Larry Flinth,
You are chaste, it's your schlong's fault, I guess.

55835 PRESIDENTS Ulla

I'm much more like Washington (George)
When ahead with a purpose I forge,
With my underpants dancing
And quickly advancing,
With this is a state of engorge.

55836 PRESIDENTS Peter Wilkins

Barbara says when on oysters they sup
George behaves like an oversexed pup.
And in bed when they hop
He is always on top,
'Cause the prez doesn't like to screw up.

55837 PRESIDENTS - BUSH SR Bob Giandomenico P8911

Said Hillary, "Barbara, what game
In the bedroom that bears Lincoln's name?
We must sand down and fix
Those two little nicks--"
"Oh, yes--George's--those two times he came."

55838 PRESIDENTS - BUSH SR Ann Gasser P9311

Former President Bush
Was fucking some underage tush.
In the Midst of a tiff,
On the edge of a cliff,
Barbara gave him a push.

55839 PRESIDENTS - BUSH SR Gene Brady

In a principled, forceful attack
Georgie Bush cut the Kremlin no slack.
"If you don't want me sore, be
Nice guys to Gorby,
The legitmate dictator, back."

55840 PRESIDENTS - BUSH SR John Sandler P9108

George Bush is a generous man,
He always gives others a hand.
He promised Billy
He could borrow Millie,
If Hillary starts kicking his can!

55841 PRESIDENTS - BUSH SR

Georgie Bush, once admired by all,
Finds his rating is now in free fall.
So he'll spread the manure
To increase his allure,
Though the spectacle's sure to appall.

55842 PRESIDENTS - BUSH SR John Sandler P9204

In the great state of Colorado,
Neil Bush ripped off Silverado. (Savings and Loan)
But he got off
With a wink and a cough.
Is "Fuck You" the Bush family motto?

55843 PRESIDENTS - BUSH SR MrMalo

Dear George, we will have steak and ale
For Christmas this year -- it's on sale!
If you do not mind,
I think I'll go blind,
If we have to have more stuffed Quayle!

55844 PRESIDENTS - BUSH SR Travis Brasell

The White House flew into a rage,
When Millie snuck out of her cage.
The book Millie wrote
Must have had a misquote,
For the Prez found her stuck to a page.

55845 PRESIDENTS - BUSH SR Actaeon

George Bush, now quite hearty and hale,
Knows well that he'll live without fail.
He chose good insurance
For two term endurance,
For next in command is Dan Quayle.

55846 PRESIDENTS - BUSH SR Tucker D. Ott P8910

Bush was an innocent old dupe,
Who was nowhere near any damn loop,
Except when he gave us
Our last Veep -- God save us!
To be our next commander (F-Troop).
(F-Troop - 1960's TV series about incompetent cavalry troop)
55847 PRESIDENTS - BUSH SR Dhanesh

For her husband, Barbara cried torrents.
"My fear for your life such tears warrants!"
But said George, "I can't fail,
I have J. Danforth Quayle
As my assassination insurance!"

55848 PRESIDENTS - BUSH SR Cindy Kandolf

At the church, as Bush came through the door,
He was told by the old Monsignor,
"You can have wishes three."
So Bush said modestly,
"I want war and more war and more war."
(News item Jan 12, 1991, Washington Post)
55849 PRESIDENTS - BUSH SR Al Chaplin P9103

Well Barb, I've got news for you, Hon;
It looks like the end of our run.
They DID read my lips.
Now I've got some tips
That may help our number one son.

55850 PRESIDENTS - BUSH SR Frank Fazed

Georgie Bush hopes that memories are dim
Of the fact he went out on a limb
With his view, "No new taxes,"
Which he broke, but the axe is
Just about to descend upon him.

55851 PRESIDENTS - BUSH SR John Sandler P9204

Georgie Bush fears his prospects are grim
'Cause he dared to go out on a limb
With a vow, "No new taxes,"
That he broke. The climax is
No new term will be given to him.

55852 PRESIDENTS - BUSH SR John Sandler P9204

A bush that was burning once spoke
Words of wisdom for all common folk.
But today, so unique,
Hear the lying Bush speak,
Interspersed with a pun and a joke.

55853 PRESIDENTS - BUSH SR Phil Cannibal P9205

There once was a shrewd politician
Who understood voter suspicion.
So he conned the locals,
The wise and the yokels,
And achieved his burning ambition.

55854 PRESIDENTS - BUSH SR Gifford Wherry

We've all heard the rhetoric and quips
About taxes and "reading my lips."
But then, when elected,
The pledge was rejected,
By George, the master of flips.

55855 PRESIDENTS - BUSH SR   Gifford Wherry

An man named George Bush was elected
By following a madman respected.
He fought the Gulf War,
But then did little more,
And in November was soundly rejected.

55856 PRESIDENTS - BUSH SR   Anon

One lunchtime, while quaffing some ale,
George Bush's heart started to fail.
And things got much worse
When a well-meaning nurse
Said, "Don't worry. I've sent for Dan Quayle."

55857 PRESIDENTS - BUSH SR   Bill Wall

The public insists on a cleaning,
An end to corruption and scheming.
But President Bush
Simply sits on his tush
And gives speeches of limited meaning.

55858 PRESIDENTS - BUSH SR   Patricia N. LimerickP9106

Almost every morning one notes
George Bush's belligerent quotes.
But his wishes all bend
Toward the war's rapid end --
Before it starts costing him votes.

55859 PRESIDENTS - BUSH SR   A. N. Wilkins   P9103

A skinhead quit his job in Toledo.
"I can't work for no guy named Guido."
If Bush has his way,
He'll be working some day,
Making burritos in Tijuana, Amigo!

55860 PRESIDENTS - BUSH SR John Roberts P9301

"One hundred less thirteen...." mused A. L.
"Eight decades plus seven....casts no spell.
Seven dozen add three more....
Eighty seven....version four,
Alas none of these four score too well."

55861 PRESIDENTS - LINCOLN Irving Superior P8506

Dear Abe, Mr. Booth has been kind;
His tickets enclosed you will find,
To Ford's fine theater;
I'll pick you up later.
The night really will blow your mind.

55862 PRESIDENTS - LINCOLN Frank Fazed

Did old "Honest Abe', on wife cheat,
While pounding the President's beat?
Or didn't he spurn
To play with intern,
Beneath Oval Office desk seat?

55863 PRESIDENTS - LINCOLN Chris Papa

Poor guy, lacked the good looks and charms
Of some red-necks, right off the farms.
At that time, you'll note,
No ladies could vote,
No support from the "soccer moms".

55864 PRESIDENTS - LINCOLN Chris Papa

With bustles and dresses quite long,
The intern could not "snap her thong",
Nor Abe thus entice
With a sample nice,
Of Sex's sweet, seductive song.

55865 PRESIDENTS - LINCOLN Chris Papa

So Abe had to keep mind on the job,
Didn't pass buck, or nasty chores lob
To cabinet hacks,
To fend off attacks
From Dems, who condemned him as "slob".

55866 PRESIDENTS - LINCOLN Chris Papa

He honored the oath that he swore;
Got country through fierce Civil War,
By keeping his nose
On duties as those,
Not shedding on blue dresses, spore.

55867 PRESIDENTS - LINCOLN Chris Papa

When Lincoln was fatally shot,
He instantly died on the spot;
"The reason he's dead,"
Said Flo's husband, Fred,
"He messed with my wife's big 'ol twat!"

55868 PRESIDENTS - LINCOLN

For victories, A. Lincoln had panted;
McDowell behaved as if planted.
But when Vicksburg was seized,
Mr. Lincoln was pleased;
His wishes at last had been Granted.

55869 PRESIDENTS - LINCOLN Laurence Perrine P9501

Dear President Abraham Lincoln
Noticed Mary Todd's pussy was stinkin'.
"Oh Abe, you rail splitter,
You've been lickin' me shitter!"
"My lord", said he, "What was I thinkin'?"

55870 PRESIDENTS - LINCOLN

Said a drunken old man of the press,
"Our political system's a mess.
If I wasn't so stinkin',
I'd write to Abe Lincoln,
But I cannot recall his address."

55871 PRESIDENTS - LINCOLN Hugh Oliver A138B

Lincoln's ghost toured the White House and said,
"It's disgraceful--he's leasing my bed!
Now I could not afford
One night's lodging and board!
Oh the shame! Yes, I'm glad that I'm dead."

55872 PRESIDENTS - LINCOLN William N. Nesbit P9703

Abe Lincoln the comedian,
Defending a parenticide man,
On sensing the judge
From 'guilty' won't budge,
"Have pity on this poor orphan."

55873 PRESIDENTS - LINCOLN Irving Superior P9001

Abe Lincoln, one sometimes perceives,
Wore garments of nondescript weaves,
And while stumping for votes,
He was tough on his coats,
And before very long, frayed the sleeves.

55874 PRESIDENTS - LINCOLN Bob Giandomenico P9804

"This job's not the fun it appears,
And my sex life is much in arrears.
Did you know," Lincoln said,
"All I've had, in the bed --
Four scores in the past seven years."

55875 PRESIDENTS - LINCOLN Ed Potts P9001

A Lincoln tall-tale yarn of yore.
Whenever questioned by a bore,
"Your legs are too long."
Lincoln twinkled "Wrong!
They're long enough to reach the floor."

55876 PRESIDENTS - LINCOLN Irving Superior P9001

The ghost of old Lincoln once said,
"Theres a Chinese asleep in my bed!"
Abe went to the john,
Said "BOO" to John Huang,
"Wern't scared! Gave me greenbacks instead!"

55877 PRESIDENTS - LINCOLN

Abe Lincoln might have made this pun
If attacked by a Catholic with gun.
"Don't pummel that sister,
Use hammers please, mister.
My motto is 'mallets to ward nun'"

55878 PRESIDENTS - LINCOLN

I revere all historical dates,
Celebrating each of our past greats.
Just at present I'm thinkin'
Of the Mary Todd Lincoln,
Versus Frederick Douglass debates.

55879 PRESIDENTS - LINCOLN Loren Fitzhugh P2005

Dear Mary, please wear your red dress
To Gettysburg where we'll caress.
Please come very soon.
For your love I swoon.
Please find enclosed new Address.

55880 PRESIDENTS - LINCOLN Travis Brasell

The slave shot his choat down the throat
Of Lydia, then he wrote this note:
"To slaves everywhere,
Unite and declare,
Abe Lincoln ain't getting our vote!"

55881 PRESIDENTS - LINCOLN Travis Brasell

Dear Richard, the family just gapes
When I tell them, behind the drapes,
You've hidden some bugs.
Don't talk to those mugs...
We're thinking you should burn the tapes.

55882 PRESIDENTS - NIXON Frank Fazed

We heard Nixon in '72
Say about Watergate, "Yep, I knew."
The voters in shock
Detested his schlock,
And changed dicks in the midst of a screw.

55883 PRESIDENTS - NIXON Kathi Webster

It's a shame the first name of Bill Clinton
Is not similar to Rich Nixon,
Who said "Stick with Dick"
And the same slogan slick
Would match well with what some folk are hintin'.

55884 PRESIDENTS - NIXON Mike Dale

How cruel are the workings of fate,
As Nixon found out much too late.
He sure didn't oughta
Have muddied the water
Or tried to unstraighten the Gate.

55885 PRESIDENTS - NIXON Hugh Oliver A138A

Dick Nixon was shrewd by design.
At detente he really did shine.
Then came Watergate
And it was too late;
Poor Richard was forced to resign.

55886 PRESIDENTS - NIXON Gifford Wherry

There once was a dandified president
Who bumbled as Whitehouse's resident.
But a Ford heard him shout,
And at once bailed him out,
And his sentences pardoned for Watergate.

55887 PRESIDENTS - NIXON

Remember Dick Nixon (the rat)?
The movie Deep Throat he once sat
Through several times,
While feeding it dimes,
Before he could get it down Pat.

55888 PRESIDENTS - NIXON

About the trial outcome, you see,
I'm bothered by the credulity.
After a long inquest
Mr Judge Renquist,
Let King Richard the Third go scot-free.

55889 PRESIDENTS - NIXON Tom Simon

Said the President, "I am mistook,
For I entered the kitchen to look.
It appears that I'm caught
With my hand in the pot,
But for certain I am not a cook."

55890 PRESIDENTS - NIXON Albin Chaplin 3024-2997

He stayed in a millionaire's house --
Mulcahy, who often shoots grouse.
But the hunt on this day
Was for much bigger prey:
"A kingdom for just one Milhous."

55891 PRESIDENTS - NIXON Max Frankel

"Don't care how he spells it," he said.
"Or whether he's living or dead.
I need a relation
In this mighty nation
Lest the polls once again drift to Ted."

55892 PRESIDENTS - NIXON Max Frankel

When Ehrlichman, Haldeman, Dean,
And Nixon were still on the scene,
The word of the hour
In the corners of power,
Was that men should be heard but obscene.

55893 PRESIDENTS - NIXON Hugh Oliver A140B

I can't help but thinking that maybe
Dick Nixon's old friend, known as Bebe,
Thought Tricia and Julie
Would not fight unduly,
But then, what kind of sisters would they be.

55894 PRESIDENTS - NIXON Dr Limerick

St. Peter did Nixon condemn,
So Tricky tried this stratagem:
"Let me pass through the gate
I've drawn art work first rate."
But the best he could draw was some phlegm.

55895 PRESIDENTS - NIXON Albin Chaplin

As one day through the White House they wandered,
Old Spiro and Richard both pondered
How to pull in the green
And yet keep their hands clean,
So the money they handled was laundered.

55896 PRESIDENTS - NIXON Albin Chaplin 3024-2831

The president, devious and sly,
On perversion of words does rely.
On his gravestone forsooth
Will be carved his FIRST truth,
A statement of fact: HERE I LIE.

55897 PRESIDENTS - NIXON Albin Chaplin P8702

Dick Nixon in office was great.
He learned how the pros urinate.
But sphincter control
Was once a bit droll
And splashed on him through Watergate.

55898 PRESIDENTS - NIXON Tucker D. Ott P9001

A notorious King made it straight,
"After me, the Great Flood," was his fate;
A President's word
Has also been heard,
When he opened his own Watergate.

55899 PRESIDENTS - NIXON Bill Backe-Hansen P8308

Dilemma of Watergate shook
A Pres who said, "I've been mistook!"
But he had to die a
Forsaken PARIAH,
While proclaiming "I am no crook!"

55900 PRESIDENTS - NIXON Observer

In recalling "U.S. versus Nixon",
'Twas leaks that the plumbers were fixin'.
'Twas Deep Throat who blew it,
Then Nixon said "Screw it!",
But not with some pubescent vixen!

55901 PRESIDENTS - NIXON

No Pres is above the law;
In the seventies, this we saw,
When Nixon was pushed
Right out on his tush,
To much of the publics applause.

55902 PRESIDENTS - NIXON Gearhart

There once was a slicker named Dick,
Who, no matter how dirty the trick,
Invoked the authority
Of the silent majority,
Till he found he could not make it stick.

55903 PRESIDENTS - NIXON John Ciardi

Is there really a new Mr. Nixon,
Who won't try his previous tricks on?
Or is it a fact
That he's virgin intact,
When it comes to a stand by conviction.

55904 PRESIDENTS - NIXON T. Griffiths

Remember that shyster from Whittier?
And his lovely wife (don't you pity her?)?
Though he ended the war,
(For which give him full score)
His behavior at home just got shittier!

55905 PRESIDENTS - NIXON Don Boen P8202

Said an Eminent Statesman named Nixon:
"I'll screw them all, now that my prick's in!
Let the voters complain
That their rectum's in pain--
Those assholes could sure use some fixin'."

55906 PRESIDENTS - NIXON G0959

The statesman's great art, that of fixin',
Would have been more effective in Nixon
If he'd understood
That the bad and the good
Are for keeping apart, not for mixin'.

55907 PRESIDENTS - NIXON Paul Jennings

"I promise -- and let this be heard!"
Said Dick, "That I'll flip you the bird,
And trick you, and zap you,
And shit you and crap you,
Till you crown me King Richard the Turd!"

55908 PRESIDENTS - NIXON Jim O'Conner P8501

When Richard and Spiro kept shop,
No man their conniving could stop.
They were forced to resign,
But they're now doing fine,
For the scum always floats to the top.

55909 PRESIDENTS - NIXON Albin Chaplin 3024-2791

Since the corpse was a heel and a bum,
To his wake the whole nation will come.
So that people can spit
On his coffin and shit,
And we'll slide him to hell on the scum.

55910 PRESIDENTS - NIXON Albin Chaplin 3024-2482

A teenage protester named Lil
Cried, "Those Watergate spies make me ill.
First they bugged our martinis,
Our bras and bikinis,
And now they are bugging the pill."

55911 PRESIDENTS - NIXON

In the days of the glory of Greece
They had Jason to fetch home the fleece.
Today we have fleeces
And Ludvig Von Mises,
And instead of John Dean, we have Meece.
(Nixon Watergate conspirators - McW)
55912 PRESIDENTS - NIXON Neal Wilgus P8311

Polital office, alas,
Goes often to men who are crass.
Was Caligula coarse
In appointing a horse?
Look! We have elected an ass!

55913 PRESIDENTS - NIXON Laurence Perrine P8411

It is very sad to look upon
The man who had held Nation's con.
Quite painful to view
The lengthly adieu
Of famed Alzheimer-AILER RON.

55914 PRESIDENTS - REAGAN Chris Papa

Wrote the Russian to Reagan: "Don't pop off.
Our proposals for war let us stop off.
We can settle our stuff
At my house on the bluff.
You may come for a visit." ANDROPOV

55915 PRESIDENTS - REAGAN Albin Chaplin

"Just a quick check for piles, Mr. Rea-Gan. You'll be out in well under a day."
But later that doc
Broke the news with a shock,
"Found a brain tumor, sorry to say."

55916 PRESIDENTS - REAGAN Michael Weinstein P9001

The point most aparent from facts is
That Mondale avows to raise taxes;
"I want spending cuts!"
Orders Ronnie with guts,
While behind him his own budget waxes.

55917 PRESIDENTS - REAGAN LaDonna Jones P8411

When atom bombs rain from the sky,
All humans on earth, they will die.
As for Caspar and Ron,
They too will be gone,
So the price that we pay is not high.

55918 PRESIDENTS - REAGAN Albin Chaplin

Since the president's ass gave him pain,
Two feet were removed with much strain.
Though it ached as before,
They could not remove more --
They were getting to close to the brain.

55919 PRESIDENTS - REAGAN Phil Cannibal P9001

Good Lady there is no conspiracy;
It's that people like Starr and Hatch see
The country doomed until Reagan.
Compare not to Fagin,
Or suffer pain of heresy.

55920 PRESIDENTS - REAGAN

Gosh, Nancy! A mystery's afoot!
How long have my brains been like soot?
When President and campaigning,
Were my faculties waning?
I'd use my head if I knew where 'twas put!

55921 PRESIDENTS - REAGAN Cruelty Jones

"The unions will soon rue this day!"
Said the President, fresh from the fray.
"For we've passed some new laws
To correct all their flaws.
Let's begin with a little foreplay!"

55922 PRESIDENTS - REAGAN Neal Wilgus P8608

Ronald Reagon observed, "I allow
That the buck, of course, still stops here now.
In that there's no change.
The thing that seems strange
Is that I've misplaced it somehow."

55923 PRESIDENTS - REAGAN A. N. Wilkins P9004

There once was a man named Hinckley
Whose actions did certainly stinkley.
He was such a pagan
That he tried to kill Reagan
To impress Jodie Foster, I thinkley.

55924 PRESIDENTS - REAGAN

A small but a very proud nation
Endured a severe devastation,
For their leaders did vamp
With the opposite camp,
And they suffered U.S. Liberation.

55925 PRESIDENTS - REAGAN   Albin Chaplin

Ronnie ran to Japan with great glee
To propound on his presidency.
He spoke in a fog
And he slept like a log --
He took two million bucks for his fee.

55926 PRESIDENTS - REAGAN   Phil Cannibal   P9001

Ronald Reagan, the head of the land,
Came to visit his strink, Dr. Rand.
Said the shrink, "You can lie
On the couch." Ron asked, "Why?
I can lie very well when I stand!"

55927 PRESIDENTS - REAGAN   Phil Cannibal   P9001

Ron Reagan to Nancy's chagrin
Met his fate when a lion did him in.
The result of all that,
He found when he shat
'Twas the same as the stuff that went in.

55928 PRESIDENTS - REAGAN   Phil Cannibal   P9001

There's something that's scary and pagan
About naming things for Ronald Reagan,
As if repeating his name
Could rekindle the flame
And his obsolete dogma awaken.

55929 PRESIDENTS - REAGAN   Dr Limerick

A student named Nancy wed Ronnie,
She thought him quite handsome and brawny
Until their wedding night
When he broached her with fright,
For his pubes were orange-haired and scrawny!

55930 PRESIDENTS - REAGAN LaDonna Jones P8411

Said Ronald to Nancy, "Go see
If some votes you can gather for me."
Said Nancy, "Don't fret,
Your votes I will get."
So she kissed Mr. T on TV.

55931 PRESIDENTS - REAGAN Albin Chaplin

The First Lady, you know, Nancy R.
Was once courted by the fancy star.
He was keen on confessing
To smart word processing.
NCR was outworded by far.
(another one I don't get - McW)
55932 PRESIDENTS - REAGAN Bill Backe-Hansen P8411

These days Ronald Reagan's as vague,
Of world affairs as an egg.
Now the most fun he gets
Is when one of her pets
Jumps up and humps on his leg.

55933 PRESIDENTS - REAGAN John Chastaine TP9802

You can say what you like about Ronnie;
His political stance is not fonnie,
But it could be much harder --
We still might have Carter
(Who would beat up a poor lettle bonnie...)
(to be read in a thick Puerto-Rican accent)
55934 PRESIDENTS - REAGAN Robin K. Willoughby P8411

My hand on the Bible, I swear,
By my only slightly dyed hair.
There'll be wealth for all.
But mostly Clairol,
For I own much more than one share.

55935 PRESIDENTS - REAGAN Larry Davis P8501

As Bonzo won movieland fame,
His co-star received the acclaim.
Now Bonzo is gone;
His co-star lives on
And plays the political game.

55936 PRESIDENTS - REAGAN R. J. Winkler P8408

A well-known ex-actor named Reagan
Kissed the cheek of the mad-bomber Begin.
This cosmic connection
Gave both an erection,
Which pissed off the celebrity Sagan.

55937 PRESIDENTS - REAGAN Neal Wilgus P8205

The President's men had a plan (C),
And they all agreed to a man, see.
They'd give Ronnie a push
And hide behind Bush.
But what would they do about Nan(cy)?

55938 PRESIDENTS - REAGAN Neal Wilgus P8607

"As your new presidential selection,
I'll govern with love and affection;
To Nancy, I've said,
'On your back, in the bed:'
So from screwing up, I have protection."

55939 PRESIDENTS - REAGAN Ed Potts P8501

That rotten whore Margaret Thatcher,
Had a vicious fuck; no one could match her.
Said President Reagan
As he pulled out his pee-gun,
"That's no beaver, my pet, that's a badger."

55940 PRESIDENTS - REAGAN Gene Brady

On observing the Russian atomics
And studying Superman comics,
I think it's an error
To counteract terror
With gas, bombs, and Reaganonomics.

55941 PRESIDENTS - REAGAN C. O. Ingamelis P8411

Ronald Reagan screamed out in dismay,
When he saw his old films, "I must say
It's a very hard fact,
I must learn to act."
And that's what he does every day.

55942 PRESIDENTS - REAGAN Frank Richards

I, President Ronnie the Rage,
Despite my incredible age,
Will protect this great country
From every affont'ry;
Will the script man now please turn the page!

55943 PRESIDENTS - REAGAN C. R. Openshaw P8501

Hypertension is clearly the fault
Of the Kremlin," said Reagan. "To halt
Its increasing for sure,
I'm providing the cure.
I'll simply eliminate SALT.

55944 PRESIDENTS - REAGAN A. N. Wilkins P8608

Reagan says he'll take the blame
For the Beirut bombing. What a shame,
A lousy actor
Being a factor
In settling the world aflame.

55945 PRESIDENTS - REAGAN   Maurice Zallen   P8402

Ron's illness is sad, such a pain.
Why this happened, no one can explain.
Some transplant success
Gives us hope, but the press
Says as yet there's no transplant of brain.

55946 PRESIDENTS - REAGAN   Ann Gasser

The President's eyes often glaze
When the Cabinet's colloquy strays.
The meetings go on,
Though it's bedtime for Ron,
Who is back in his Death Valley Days.

55947 PRESIDENTS - REAGAN   Chris Doyle   P8805

In alternative systems, indeed,
There are policies based upon greed;
But in ours, it is merit
Which determines -- I swear it --
How much welfare the wealthiest need.

55948 PRESIDENTS - REAGAN   Thomas A. Quinine   P8501

Ron Reagan has given (loud cheers!)
Us wonderful things for four years:
The Meeses, old cheeses,
Oil leases, and Jesus...
And a mixed bag of nuclear fears.

55949 PRESIDENTS - REAGAN   Arthur Deex   P8405

From good sense Ronald Reagan's retreated;
My regard for him is depleted.
He started so well,
Then became nutty as hell.
Now he's just another expletive deleted.
(Published 1982 before Reagan's Alzheimers.. or maybe not)

55950 PRESIDENTS - REAGAN Ed Wolfert P8205

Though weapons are stockpiled and squirreled
And horrible insults are hurled,
My nuclear arm
Is no cause for alarm --
I swear I won't blow up the world.

55951 PRESIDENTS - REAGAN Esther M. Leiper P8501

A septagenarian president
Has entered the White House as resident.
He loves our great land,
But to buy second-hand
A car from him, I would be hesitant.

55952 PRESIDENTS - REAGAN Ed Wolfert P8205

Said Reagan, "O. J. you're the best.
We're so glad you're out of that mess.
We hope you'll come see
Both Nancy and me,
When you and Nicole come out West."

55953 PRESIDENTS - REAGAN Theo M. Weller P9512

Reagan has a growth that's benign.
A diagnosis that he thinks is fine.
The real growth, however,
Which is as light as a feather,
Is the lump at the top of his spine.

55954 PRESIDENTS - REAGAN Maurice Zallen P8406

R. Reagan declares that to zing
The deficit he needs one thing.
With real tax reform
He'll weather the storm,
And "Debt," he'll ask, "where is thy sting."

55955 PRESIDENTS - REAGAN A. N. Wilkins P8607

Please note I speak not out of spite --
Reagan wants to do good and do right --
He's suave, I suppose,
In manner and clothes,
But frankly, Jane Wyman was right.

55956 PRESIDENTS - REAGAN LaDonna Jones P8411

In the Liberty bash it's foregone
That the President had to be drawn
For lighting the lamp
Which shows that this gramp
Can still turn a female type on.

55957 PRESIDENTS - REAGAN A. N. Wilkins P8608

Forty-nine out of fifty is good,
And Ron did the best that he could.
But old Minnesota
Is now "East Dakota"
And the ten thousand lakes are all mud.

55958 PRESIDENTS - REAGAN C. R. Openshaw P8501

The President gave us Star Wars
And the people all screamed for lots more.
The budget's in red,
And the people quite bled,
But ready and willing like whores.

55959 PRESIDENTS - REAGAN Bob Jones P8409

Ronald Reagan at first was all hot
For Judge Ginsburg, and then he was not.
Quite visibly pained,
The Gipper explained,
"We can't have The Court going to pot."

55960 PRESIDENTS - REAGAN A. N. Wilkins P8912

The US prestige took a dive
While the Contra/Iran scandals thrive.
But you'll have to agree
That this just wouldn't be
If Ron Reagan had still been alive.

55961 PRESIDENTS - REAGAN Arthur Deex P8912

Ronald Reagan, they say, from the start
Had so mastered the horseperson's art
That today he perforce
Seems part of the horse,
But what they don't say is which part.

55962 PRESIDENTS - REAGAN A. N. Wilkins P8907

I solemnly swear or affirm
I'll serve in the White house this term
With grandeur and poise
Amid mandated joys.

To raise both my hand and your tax.

55965 PRESIDENTS - REAGAN R. J. Winkler P8501

I promise to uphold the right
Of the rich to get richer by might.
And if things go at all well,
I'll appoint Jerry Falwell
As First Lord of Truth and of Light.

55966 PRESIDENTS - REAGAN Laurence Perrine P8501

For his cabinet, Reagan so vague,
Chose a man who would let loose a plague.
So we sit and we pray
And we long for the day
When the last atom bomb blows up Haig.

55967 PRESIDENTS - REAGAN Albin Chaplin 3024-3019

Ronnie Reagan had bad constipation,
A problem with elimination.
A true polititian,
He cured his condition
With verbalized regurgitation.

55968 PRESIDENTS - REAGAN Neal Wilgus P8209

As Ron slept with his dear Nancy Fair,
He reached for a tit that was bare.
Then he felt for her snatch
But drew back with dispatch,
When he found Frankie's tongue was still there.

55969 PRESIDENTS - REAGAN Al Chaplin P9402

"Since he sleeps in his office, how come
He vacations so frequently, chum?"
The reporter, a pro,
Said "What I want to know
Is what he's vacationing from."

55970 PRESIDENTS - REAGAN            A. N. Wilkins       P8709

The movie protrayed Ronald Reagan
As something far worse than a pagan.
But Barbra Streisand
Got a suprise and
Matt Drudge looks as smart as Carl Sagan.

Take care for we're treading on eggs.
So beware of his charms,
If we vote for his arms,
It may cost us an couple of legs.

And in nine months you'll see,
I was taking the neighbor girl's cherry."

Their facts are all wet,
There's been no truth yet,
Since George and the old cherry tree.

55977 PRESIDENTS - WASHINGTON Frank Richards

When he stood in that boat.
"Sit down! If you fall in, you'll drown."

55981 PRESIDENTS - WASHINGTON Larry Hollister

I knew one, called Julie Kincaid.
She gave you the choice,
In her gruff manly voice:
"I either get paid or get laid."

So everyone paid up of course,
Get sucked 'neath her dress,
You'd best tap SOS
With your feet on the hooter in morse.

Each time as into her he slides.

That will only heat up and not scorch.
Quite soon your hot slime
Will make you feel sublime;
Be discreet and use the back porch.

With hot-lava stuff,
And burn out your brain with the floes.

56283 PROPOSITIONS - FEMALE - SERIES H WHELCHEL

Why, someone is visiting me!
Blond hair and green eyes --
What a lucious surprise!
But who in the world can she be?

56401 PROPOSITIONS - POLITE - QUICK

I guess I should put on some pants,
Or should I just take a chance,
And open the door
To see for sure,
If she's come here seeking romance?

56402 PROPOSITIONS - POLITE - QUICK

I'll open the door just a crack.
Oh, damn! Now my pecker I've whacked,
With the knob of the door,
Making my knob throb sore,
And I've fallen right down on my back!

56403 PROPOSITIONS - POLITE - QUICK

Little skirt that you've specially bought
For occasions like these;
Leave your panties off please;

Four inches when really
'Tain't anywhere near as petite.

56421 PROPOSITIONS - POLITE - SERIES Bonnie

So sorry you're not well my dear,
Come over, lie next to me here.
Have yourself a good snort,
To ease your discomfort,
And then snuggle up to my rear.

56422 PROPOSITIONS - POLITE - SERIES

To snuggle up tight to your rear
Would stiffen me pleasingly, dear.
So when I stop sneezing
And sniffing and wheezing,
I hope you'll start squeezing me here.

Oh come to the garden, dear Maud,
For long years your face I've adored.
Out there, midst the tulips,
I'll slip 'twixt your two lips,
My 'normously throbbing pork sword.

56428 PROPOSITIONS - POLITE - SERIES

My innocence, Jasper, you mock;
Your phrases have caused me great shock.
Besides, where my finger
Is touching your dinger,
It seems to be just a half cock.

56429 PROPOSITIONS - POLITE - SERIES

Sir Jasper! Such crude affectation,
Concerning my globes of lactation!
You, sir, are a brute; even so, 'tis my duty
To soothe, in some way, your reaction.

56430 PROPOSITIONS - POLITE - SERIES

No sir, I don't mean that at all;
I'll give sister Beryl a call.
Her rottweiler face
Will soon shrink your base;
She's sex-starved; will give you a ball.

56431 PROPOSITIONS - POLITE - SERIES

Oh Maudie, that's really bad form,
To push me off when I'm so warm.

I'm sorry Travis but I have a conflict;
I already have a date with an elephant's dick.
Plus I won't come from Wooster
To see your dumb rooster.
What do you expect a smart girl to pick?

56438 PROPOSITIONS - POLITE - SERIES

I saddened that Kristen dates Dumbo,
Who'll make of her honey-pot, gumbo;
But since you are smart,
And lying's an art,
Come check out my cock -- it's a jumbo!

56439 PROPOSITIONS - POLITE - SERIES

Since Kristen is probably deceased,
From an elephant's dick, the least,
I can do is see why,
You told this huge lie,
And check out your 17 inch beast.

56440 PROPOSITIONS - POLITE - SERIES

Oh lying's an art we know well,
Whether in a haystack or motel.
So I'll check the size,
Of your manly prize,
And the whole truth I promise to tell.

56441 PROPOSITIONS - POLITE - SERIES

The pachyderm detective last night I did seek,
He had indeed heard of Travis's meat.
He had pics of the lad,
At a nude beach in Chad.
Now we have no reason to meet.

56442 PROPOSITIONS - POLITE - SERIES

If I was you Kristen, I'd fire,
That detective you had for hire.
'Cause honey that pic,
Could not be Trav's dick,
Last night he sang lead in Maude's choir.

56443 PROPOSITIONS - POLITE - SERIES

A suggestion I'll make if I may:

Needs a girl with your charm,
So let's have us a roll in the hay.

Being such a conversationalist.

Said Deb, as she stood on her head,
With her thighs horizontally spread,
"Can we do it this way
For the rest of the day?"
"Well okay," Tom indifferently said.

57452 PUNS - TOM SWIFT - SERIES Peter Wilkins

Indifferently's just the right word,
If you're mounting and screwing your bird,

Makes your end bits all vibe,
But what do you do with the curd?

57453 PUNS - TOM SWIFT - SERIES Richard Jean

"Last night in the garden I tried
Plucking petals to find a new bride.
But the weeds that I got
All said "Loves me not,"
Poor Tom lackadaisically cried.

Those one petaled flowers, I fear,
Told Tom what he wanted to hear.
Thus to hear was his wish,
Something "love me not"-ish;
That precise phrase tended to appear.

Your theorems on blooming statistics
Depend on your hypotheistics,
That the count of the petals
Is randomly settled;
But what if the flowers are fixed?

Admittedly, Tom's superstitious
To think daisys can answer his wishes;
But you can't reject
H-naught; he's correct.
Your argument's too meretricious.

Did both animals, lay folk beguile.

58570 RELIGION - SAINTS - PATRICK William N. Nesbit P9609

I have to put on the brake,
For this thing about Patrick and snake
Is a lot of old mist.
Snakes did never exist
In Ireland - It's a religious "mistake".

58571 RELIGION - SAINTS - PATRICK

The "snake" is a symbol for Devil,
Which the Church saw as being quite level
With the Pagan and Druid
Religions, quite fluid,
In those parts of Ireland's dishevel.

58572 RELIGION - SAINTS - PATRICK

The "pagan" or "country dweller"
Worshiped some gods that seemed sweller
To them than the "White One".
But the Church taught the "Right" one
Was better than the other feller.

58573 RELIGION - SAINTS - PATRICK

Patrick (that's not what he was named)
Was enslaved by some Irish disdained,
For slavery and plunder
And so it's no wonder
That he sought the revenge he has claimed.

58574 RELIGION - SAINTS - PATRICK

The "Horned God" was a Nature sprite,
But was transformed, by the pen, overnight,
Into a most foul fate --
The "Devil Incarnate"
And by Patrick was then put to flight.

58575 RELIGION - SAINTS - PATRICK

And so this great myth comes to close,
I dry my wet eyes, blow my nose,
For the injustice is clear
What ever you hold dear
Can be twisted into - "Heaven Knows".

58576 RELIGION - SAINTS - PATRICK

I'll admit in no uncertain terms,
Every serpent that slithers and squirms
Was drove out by Saint Pat,
But I'll shit in my hat,
If that putz didn't leave all the worms.

58577 RELIGION - SAINTS - PATRICK

On St. Patricks, drink lots of green beer.
Get drunk and go boom on your rear.

Lord Peter's a toffee-nosed fool,
Who was sent to an upper-class school;
He's too scared to admit
That it isn't a zit
On the face of young Charles, but his tool.

58903 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - CHARLES

He sniffs round that ghastly Camilla,
A haggard and po-faced gorilla.
He uses his nose
On account of his hose,
Being hardly sufficient to fill 'er.

58904 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - CHARLES

But nosing around in the rough
Of Camilla's gorilla-like muff
Makes his nose strangely angled
And causes his strangled
And odd sounding vowels, sure enough.

58905 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - CHARLES

Prince Charles and Parker-Bowles are such bores!
Yet, after they fuck on all fours,
Camilla lies back with relief,
And lets loose a queef,
That reminds Chuck of Mom when she snores.

58906 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - CHARLES John Chastaine T9710

It's said that Prince Charles eats sage;
He boils it until it turns beige.
The sage he likes most
Is Laurens Van der Post,
Who he keeps in a very small cage.

Then said Prince Charles of Wales:
"I know what marriage entails,
So I don't want a girl
But a jolly young Earl,
To solace my passion for males."

58908 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - CHARLES G1048

Poor Charlie, the Prince of Wails,
His treatment by the press he bewails.
He tries so much
For the common touch,
But not matter how hard, he just fails.

58909 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - CHARLES Bob

Prince Charles in his Welsh principality,
Formed a violent left-wing sodality.
When asked why this was,
He replied, "It's because
I am sick of the family mentality."
(sodality - club, association, fraternity)

58910 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - CHARLES   Bernard Levin

There was a young man who'd be king,
Who decided to have a spring fling.
He called up Camilla
And asked her "Dear, Willya?"
But she said "Only if there's a ring."

58911 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - CHARLES   Brown

I'd hate to be Princess Di,
Always in the public eye.
Prince Charles thinks it's fine;
Hangs his wash on the line.
We all know that Princes can lie.

58912 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - CHARLES

Rinsed down the drain, t'would be waste.
For years the Queen Mum has been chaste.
But she gagged on the funk
Of his royalty spunk,
Charles' wad had a shit flavored taste.

58913 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - CHARLES

Prince Charles talks to plants in his garden;
He's a twit; we will not beg his pardon.
He wants to help in the war;
He can, what is more;
We'll swap him for Mr Bin Laden!

58914 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - CHARLES   Tony Burrell

But speed the driver would insist.
She didn't know he was on ales,
For 'Diana Princess of Wales'
Became: Fine car? Alas, now pissed.

58915 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - DIANA

The death of beloved Princess Di
Brought a tear to the world's weary eye;
Good looking and fun,
A brief ray of sun
In Royalty's dark, cloudly sky.

58916 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - DIANA Satori Press

Wed on TV; died there too!
Her life was just a large zoo,
With Chucky the clown
Waiting for his crown;
Oh my, Now what does he do?

58917 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - DIANA Jim Weaver Collection

You may call me an evil ogre,
But I am willing to be sober
About insignificance
Of this woman's events,
And my relief that it's over.

But then I must really decline;
Your words are very much too kind.
They say she is dead,
And that's what I said;
Get over it...It is about time!

58919 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - DIANA Jim Weaver Collection

Those pictures of Di were a fraud;
If they were real, she'd now be abroad.
In any case, Hewitt,
'Twas known that he blew it,
Or he'd now be a Prince or a Lord.

Margaret's temper, they say, is well hot.
But thank heavens Camilla
Has not taken the tiller

An overexposed prissy wench,
Lived and died in a stench.
She lived in the spotlight,
But then late at night,
Her ride ended up in a crunch.

Diana, the fruit on my screen,
Was nothing to me, know what I mean?
But a rich twit
Always in a snit;
She's in the ground now, how keen!

58924 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - DIANA Jim Weaver Collection

There once was a Princess named Di
Who liked a good dick 'tween her thighs.
Men pulled from her gash
Just in time for the splash,
Which was frequently shot in her eye.

Major Hewitt's no longer engaged:
Ex-fiance Ferretti, enraged
Sold his love-letter stash

58926 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - DIANA   Paul Hoffman

Diana's brief Royalty fling
Assures her of one future thing;
Though she won't wear a crown,
She's the toast of the town
Just my name dropping, "My son, The King!"

58927 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - DIANA   Evelyn Bogen   P9701

Princess Di, in unfortunate place,
Paparazzi behind giving chase.
Said St. Peter in Heaven
"You're number eleven,
Before entering, wipe Merc off your face."

58931 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - DIANA   Rick Limmer   T9710

Lady Di said, "This is absurd!
Charles always has the last word!"
So to shake up the Brits,
She uncovered her teats,
And flipped the Queen Mother the bird!

58932 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - DIANA   Ogden Nield   P9601

Princess Di gave reporters the power
To interview her for an hour.
And, with true British pluck
She trashed Liz and Chuck;
She's regretting it now in the Tower.

58933 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - DIANA

Diana was smitten in Spring
With a Prince who would surely be King.

Which included Mrs. Bowles,
So the Princess said "Chuck the whole thing!"

Diana, the late Princess of Wales,
Spoke of bullemia and other food tales.
Her life it was hell
And it's just as well;
It ended scraping her into a pail.

Like her sister-in-law, Duchess of York,
Princess Di has been blessed by the stork.
Till the brats are full grown,
She'll get checks from the throne,
And she won't have to sleep with that dork.

58938 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - DIANA Arthur Deex P9606

Lady Di spoke up, quite irate.
"Could you slow down this Merc,

58940 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - DIANA Princess Diana P9611

England's precious Princess Di,
Reminds one of mom's apple pie.
With the poor she was sweet.
See her now'd be a treat,
But the tabloids ground her down to die.

58941 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - DIANA Joe the Jester

I saw in this morning's Express,
Princess Di in a transparent dress.
Is that the royal show?
Prince Charles shouted NO!
But the man from Del Monte said Yes!

58942 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - DIANA Bill Wall

The story is over, my friends;
Too late now for making amends.
Let's not dwell on "Why!"
For Dodi and Di;
That's the way that the Mercedes Benz!

58943 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - DIANA John Miller 0088

A certain clear message their tragedy sends.
They shouldn't have speeded;

But that's just the way the Mercedes Benz.

This year LIZ H REX stifled a moan;
Not a moan, but say rather a groan.
She's not known to complain,
But says, "It's been a strain
Sitting 50 long years on the Throne."

58946 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - ELIZABETH Loren Fitzhugh   P0208

Our old queen, Lizzie the oneth,
Is said to have bathed once a month,
But such stuff's for royalty,
And I show my loyalty,
And bathe after sex with two nunth.

58947 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - ELIZABETH

Queen Lizzie climbed into her carriage;
They had dragged it out of the garage,
And cleaned off the dust
And old gum and rust,
A thing I'm not going to disparage.

58948 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - ELIZABETH Tiddy Ogg

Prince Phillip, his face wreathed in smiles,
Has now found a cure for his piles.
He grins, has a laugh,
As his right royal staff
Is massaged by Liz for three miles.

58949 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - ELIZABETH Tiddy Ogg

"We must not appear to be lax,"
Quipped Phillip, while probing the cracks
Of Liz, "Or all Brits
Might come to their wits
And cease our support with their tax."

58950 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - ELIZABETH Travis Brasell

"Egads!" ripped Queen Liz, "That would foil
Our lifestyle and we'd have to toil
To earn daily bread
And that I would dread!
So, quick, make me come -- then look royal!"

58951 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - ELIZABETH Travis Brasell

I'm considered in England a toff;
And upper-class dude. You may scoff,
But I tell you I've seen
Quite a lot of The Queen;
She comes to my house for a boff!

58952 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - ELIZABETH Peter W

At last my Lord has confessed,
With a silver spoon he is blessed.
But the only "Queen"
That he's ever seen,
Is some quaint old queer overdressed.

58953 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - ELIZABETH Bob

I never said I do the job
With the queen, it's my manservant Bob.
He dong is so long
That she gave him a gong,
And she dubbed him Lord Robert of Knob.

58954 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - ELIZABETH Peter W

Dear Peter, if Bob should retire,
I'll dress up in butler attire.
I'll present my plumb
To Liz and Queen Mum.
Perhaps they could dub it their squire.

58955 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - ELIZABETH H Whelchel

I must also confess, you see,
And I confess it with absolute glee.
You can't have the job
Of good butler Bob;
For quite simply, old Bob is just me!

58956 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - ELIZABETH Bob

Queen Elizabeth kept her own bed,
Though many had sought her to wed.
Despite all their urgin'
She remained a virgin,
It was greatness, not children, she bred.

58957 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - ELIZABETH Warrick Elrod

Queen Bess knew she never would wed,
But suitors on a merry chase led.
She played each on a string,
Let each think he'd be king,
But kept pure her virginal bed.

58958 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - ELIZABETH Warrick Elrod

Great Elizabeth, Queen, if you please,
Wrote majestically in Stengelese.
She'd indict in a way
That made councillors say:
"Does she mean to inform, or to tease?"

58959 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - ELIZABETH Warrick Elrod

Queen Bess from great house to house went.
In Northumberland, Oxford, and Kent.
While her retinue supped,
All her hosts went bankrupt,
But she saved on her food bills and rent.

58960 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - ELIZABETH Warrick Elrod

To his Queen, said the circumspect Burleigh,
"It is true that you are old Harry's girlie,
But if you meet Essex
And do not supress sex,
You'll be had by the short and the curly."

58961 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - ELIZABETH A. Cinna

In the life of earthy Queen Bess, sex
Included both Leicester and Essex,
But what with her cares
Not to give herself heirs,
It never was quite a success, sex.

58962 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - ELIZABETH History Pun Chimera P0108

Could not rupture her honeyed vagina,
She let men make use

58963 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - ELIZABETH Judson Jerome   P8805

Elizabeth pursued love each Spring,
Seeking the man to be king.
Many a fellow tried to woo her
And wound up one head fewer --
A lofty price for a spring fling.

58964 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - ELIZABETH LostnAustin

Great Queen whom I idolize,
'Twould be a most pleasant surprise,
And one to remember,
Could I place my member
Between thy mighty and Sovereign thighs.

58965 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - ELIZABETH Jeffrey Littman

Queen Elizabeth taking a crap,
Had a volume of Keats on her lap.
Waking up with a start,
She let fly a fart,
And broke up a really good nap.

58966 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - ELIZABETH Tony Davie

I think I'm in love with the Queen,
Although a bit odd it may seem.
Her royal demeanor
Keeps my limericks cleaner,
To be loyal is what I do mean.

58967 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - ELIZABETH Bob Mornington

The Queen has herself in a pickle!
Besides treating Di like a dickhole,
Now there's a shot on TV,
Of Her Highness at tea,
Using arsehole to pick up a nickel.

58968 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - ELIZABETH Jim Weaver Collection

Being the Queen must be super,
With corgis that nip at a trooper.
While the Queen And Prince walk,
Just behind he must stalk,
To clean up with a gold pooper scooper.

58969 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - ELIZABETH Warrick Elrod

The immaculate Sir Walter Raleigh,
Had a terrible row with his valet,
Who, on seeing his cloak,
Cried, "You lousy old soak!
You've been rolling about in the alley."

58970 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - ELIZABETH T L McCarthy

With lute and with sword I adore
Thee, Sovereign Maid from before.
The gold from a galleon,
With the cloak of a Raleigh on.
All these I now lay at your door.

58971 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - ELIZABETH

As I sat on the bed of the Queen,
She made some proposals obscene.
I said, "Button your lip;
I prefer Prince Phillip --
And to hell with your famous Ich Dien'."

I squashed both my balls,
But my bottom is lovely and clean.)

58973 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - ELIZABETH CMC P8301

In '52, up in a tree,
Princess E learned that she was the Queen;
Events of years past
Mean she might be the last;
But for now, it's the Gold Jubilee!

58974 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - ELIZABETH Dr Limerick 02-06-02

So far, the Brits remain loyal
To the oddball bunch they call The Royals;
But the publicized quarrels
Of Diana and Charles
Have the image indelibly soiled.

58975 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - ELIZABETH Dr Limerick 02-06-02

Those who to the Royals are anti,
Say the Royals behavior gives scanty
Justification
For personification
Of the Nation by Royals so randy.

58976 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - ELIZABETH Dr Limerick 02-06-02

And other Brits now realize
They can't the past idealize;
They're only a province
Of E U, not sovereigns,
So it's past time to de-Royalize.

58977 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - ELIZABETH Dr Limerick 02-06-02

So maybe it's all for the best
That the reign of the Second Queen Bess
Be the end of the Royals,
And from now on the toils
Of the prince will be those of the rest.

58978 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - ELIZABETH Dr Limerick 02-06-02

It's time that everyone say
Happy Birthday to you!
All good wishes are due.

You may say that I'm lacking in tact,
As I state below,
I'm qualified, so
Old Lizzie will have to be sacked.

A sponge or some other fine cake.
I swear that like Alf-

58981 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - ELIZABETH Tiddy Ogg 09-15-02

Like Charles II does as he flees.
But do it I might,

And just like King John, very bad.

Our claim is refused,
But you folks should be very glad.

Henry's first wife was Catherine of Aragon;
For a time he thought she was his paragon,
But to get a divorce,
Broke with Rome, but of course,
And then feasted on quail's eggs and tarragon.

58993 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - HENRY   Marc Willcox

Young Henry the Eighth, know as Tudor,
His manner could not have been ruder.
For his wife, Anne Boleynm
Lost her head, What a sin!
I bet she wished that he'd never wooed her.

58994 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - HENRY   Marc Willcox

Jane Seymour was Henry's third wed,

Katharyn Howard was known to be flirty;

Culpepper and she Found "en flagrenti",
Whilst Henry played his hurdy gurdy.

Henry Eighth had his rigid belief
Played out as a regal LEITMOTIF:
All my wives I love,
But, push comes to shove,
Prefer them for couplings quite brief.

Leaves one short on progeny;
That's why he's called Henry "the ate."

59003 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - HENRY   Robin K. Willoughby P8607

King Henry the Eighth was a man

He wasn't a specter or wraith.

When Henry the eighth was the king,
He danced well and could prettily sing.
But grim fascination
With decapitation
Made his reign quite a damned bloody thing.

59012 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - HENRY   Ed Wolfert   P8308

King Henry the Eighth was a Tudor,
Of our monarchs we've witnessed few lewder;
Each wife that he wed,
He led to the bed,
Where he viewed 'er, and wood 'er and screwed 'er.

59013 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - HENRY   Kirkham Talbot

Old Henry the Eighth was the king;

A fine reason for her to ditch.

A simple flirtation.
No wonder Anne's head soon took flight."

So wife number 4's Anne of Cleves,
A mail-order bride, I believes,
But when they were wed,
They ne'er went to bed,
And she too, was soon asked to leave.

59022 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - HENRY Tiddy Ogg

Kate Howard was chose to be next:
But her extra-marital sex
Caused her head to drop,
When she got the chop...
I think with her Henry was vexed.

59023 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - HENRY Tiddy Ogg

The last one was Catherine Parr,
She had her affairs but cooed "Darling Henry, you're great,
I love all your eight..."
And so she outlived him by far.

59024 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - HENRY Tiddy Ogg

To recap then, here are their names:
Katie A, Anne B and Jane,
Then came Annie C,
Katie H, Katie P,
And that was the end of his reign.

59025 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - HENRY   Tiddy Ogg

I hope you have sympathy for
Our Henry, just note that the poor
Man's life was sheer hell;
I've shown you quite well,
The bloke had six mothers-in-law.

59026 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - HENRY   Tiddy Ogg

King Henry
King Henry's new wife, he did hate her,
For she farted and pissed when he ate her.
Sex with her, he did dread,
So he chopped off her head,
But he saved the remainder...for later.
59027 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - HENRY   Martin A. Thompson

He used her most often at night;
She was harder to see without light.
Never once did she moan,
When he drove himself home,
Never once did she put up a fight.

59028 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - HENRY

From then on she was faithful and true,
Though her flesh turned purple and blue.
For a while she was hot,
When she started to rot,
Then she bloated and ripped right in two!

59029 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - HENRY

He relied on her for his releases,
Decomposition formed natural greases.
Then with undying love, a push and a shove,
Undying passion, not subject to fashion,
Frantic emotion, and ferverous motion,
He literally loved her to pieces.

59030 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - HENRY

She looked like she'd been through a meat-grinder,
But depending on how he aligned her,
She could take what he had,
Without oozing too bad,
It worked best with a pillow behind her.

59031 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - HENRY

She lasted nigh onto a year,
And you may think his habits quite queer,
But could you justify waste,
On pretense of good taste,
With the body you yearned for, so near.

59032 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - HENRY

For a while he thought he might freeze her.
"Make it last!" thought the horny old geezer.
But he noted with awe,
She took ten days to thaw,
To the point where a fellow could seize her.

59033 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - HENRY

King Henry became an old man;
He relied more and more on his hand.
But he never forgot her,
This lovable rotter,
The ripest in all of the land.

59034 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - HENRY

King Henry the First and his mate
Bore children from their wedding date.
Huge families they bore
Of children galore.
The last one was Henry the Eight.

59035 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - HENRY Irving Superior P0800

King Henry the Eighth is distraught.
While looking at Anne Boleyn's twat,
He grasps at a hair
And then in despair,
"SHE LOVES ME" and "SHE LOVES ME NOT."

59036 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - HENRY Irving Superior

Old Henry he had a great girth;
He stuffed it for all he was worth.
Which was not a lot,
The silly old clot,
'Cause his wives still could not give birth.

59037 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - HENRY

It's not social climbing, it's said
To leap into Old Henry's bed.
And you must not scoff
When he has it off,
For likely as not, it's your head.

59038 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - HENRY

Old Henry got up to some tricks;
His Tudor Tarts numbered six.
Now one at a time
Seemed to be just fine,
If the previous one he could fix.

59039 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - HENRY

What gives with this daft Tudor Tart?
The real ones were not mad, apart
That is from the ones
Who wiggled their bums,
For to get their motors to start

59040 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - HENRY

Tudor Tarts are tasty we're told; (Henry VIII wives)
The best that have ever been sold.
If they stop their kickin',
Then we'll start a lickin';
That is if we may be so bold.

59041 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - HENRY

We Tarts are indeed in demand;
Quite good at our crafts, understand?
But we never are sleazy,
Nor are we easy;
Approach us with caution, young man.

59042 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - HENRY

Our whips we wield with great skill,
And will strike without warning, at will.
So your manners do mind
Or we'll strike your behind,
And add S & M to your bill.

59043 ROYALTY - ENGLAND - HENRY

In the silence of her empty room,
The queen thought of her forthcoming doom.
The court circular said
She would soon lose her head,
She'd read the announcement with gloom!

Oops! There she goes down on her bum.

59740 SCIENCE - ECONOMICS Robley E George

Adam Smith's invisible illusion
Has grown to the present delusion.
Cooperation is attained
When Competition's sustained.
Hence, the planet's great confusion.

59741 SCIENCE - ECONOMICS Robley E George

There once was an old beggar man,
Who dined from a ripe garbage can.
But they chased him away
From his regal cafe;
He embarrassed the Economist's plan.

59742 SCIENCE - ECONOMICS Robley E George

Economists in a strange wonderland,.
Talking of an Invisible Hand.
While no one can see it,
They seem to agree it
Somehow makes just Everything grand.

59743 SCIENCE - ECONOMICS Robley E George

To facts economists seem heedless.
The tragedy is it's so needless.
The technology's there,
With ample to spare,
Yet millions of people go feedless.

59744 SCIENCE - ECONOMICS Robley E George

Just think of the millions unemployed,
Whose lives are so seldom enjoyed.
Economists say: "So what?
They deserve what they got.
And besides, inflation is destroyed."

59745 SCIENCE - ECONOMICS Robley E George

There once was an Economist who thought,
Which outraged his peers, so they sought
To label him extreme,
(Which to them it did seem.)
And have all this thought go for nought.

59746 SCIENCE - ECONOMICS Robley E George

Economists on the Left and the Right;
Either way it's a terrible sight.
Using arguments old,
And confused when retold,
They're as much cause as cure, in the fight.

59747 SCIENCE - ECONOMICS Robley E George

Though ONEROUS as shopping may be,
The season for you and for me,
From wrath we'll abstain,
Through snow, sleet, and rain.
It's good for the year's GNP. (gross national product)

59748 SCIENCE - ECONOMICS Elois

The Economist with head up his ass,
As he lectured in front of the class:
My theories are great;
They seal Mankind's fate.
Others said that he simply passed gas.

59749 SCIENCE - ECONOMICS Robley E George

The problem is shaping societies
In ways with proper propieties.
Should it be Capitalism
Or another Barbarism,
Like Socialism's 57 varieties.

59750 SCIENCE - ECONOMICS Robley E George

Just what did humanity do
To deserve an Economist or two?
We'd be better sans any;
Instead we got many.
No wonder the economy's askew.

59751 SCIENCE - ECONOMICS Robley E George

Said a man who's not dressed all that neat,
With shoes covering part of his feet:
"The Safety Net's a joke,
For all who are broke.
Now me, I just sleep in the street."

59752 SCIENCE - ECONOMICS Robley E George

Our spending is down, that is why
They'll ufge us to go out and buy;
Consumption is IN!
Not buying's a sin!
We can turn things around if we try!

59753 SCIENCE - ECONOMICS John Miller

Buy a blivet you don't really need;
That money will serve as the seed
For the rest of this session
Of evil recession.
(Exhortaions you surely must heed!"

59754 SCIENCE - ECONOMICS John Miller

The money, economists say,
Will replay and replay and replay;
Let the shopkeeper earn,
Then he will, in turn,
Spend that money the very next day.

59755 SCIENCE - ECONOMICS John Miller

And then, (the great gurus explain),
The money will move throught the chain,
Getting lazy young slobs
All working at jobs,
Who in turn will spend money again.

59756 SCIENCE - ECONOMICS John Miller

But think, at the same blivet store,
If you smash in the window or door,
The same flow of cash
Will result from the bash
As the sale, and an awful lot more!

59757 SCIENCE - ECONOMICS John Miller

There's the cops who must check out the crime;
No doubt they'll be paid overtime!
And the hungry street sweepers,

59758 SCIENCE - ECONOMICS John Miller

I will do my part with great pride!
In a moment I'm going outside
With a brick in my hand,

Fight back a stock market slide.

59759 SCIENCE - ECONOMICS John Miller

Price increase with no growth: STAGFLATION,
Leads to national indignation.
If leaders so choose,
Economic blues
Result in indigo-nation.

59760 SCIENCE - ECONOMICS Daniel Ford

But bills going up, says the wife,
"I know that our nation

So here it is - one, nine, eight, four;
The biggie in Orwellian folklore.
We worried and fussed,
But so far it's a bust;
'Bout the same as all years heretofore.

59768 SCIENCE - GENETICS June Sullivan P8411

There just isn't anything new:
In April our taxes came due,
The hopeful politicians
Still vie for positions,
And the swallows arrived right on cue.

59769 SCIENCE - GENETICS June Sullivan P8411

In one area I'd hoped for a change.
It's human anatomy that I'd rearrange.
By snipping DNA
The geneticists may
Make us more utile, but I hope not too strange.

59770 SCIENCE - GENETICS June Sullivan P8411

Just look at our human design!
Is our architecture really so fine?
I think a third arm
Wouldn't do any harm,
And I'd get good use out of mine.

59771 SCIENCE - GENETICS June Sullivan P8411

Here's another anatomical innovation.
Let's give sex a more central location.
A strong tail would be neat
To form a three-cornered seat
With the legs. At S.R.O, a sensation.

59772 SCIENCE - GENETICS June Sullivan P8411

Next, I think I would like to dispose
Of all hair and the nails on the toes.
And I'd build a pocket
Below each arm socket,
And put a hook where we now have a nose.

59773 SCIENCE - GENETICS June Sullivan P8411

I'd move the nose down to the chest;
Near the pocket with Kleenex is best.
A Swiss army knife would become
An improved left thumb,
And a built-in strobe light -- center breast.

59774 SCIENCE - GENETICS June Sullivan P8411

Now think of the tailor's delight.
He'd be sewing all day and all night
To create a nose slit,
Make a third sleeve to fit,
A tail hole and a flap over the light.

59775 SCIENCE - GENETICS June Sullivan P8411

I guess these improvements must wait.
We may have them by two two ought eight.
But alas, this poor bod
Will be under the sod.
By then I'll be known as "the late....
